The Bahamas Between Worlds:

The Bahamas Between Worlds Dean Walter Collinwood, 1989 Black Seminoles in the Bahamas Rosalyn Howard, 2023-05-01 This is the first full length ethnography of a unique community within the African diaspora Rosalyn Howard traces the history of the isolated Red Bays community of the Bahamas from their escape from the plantations of the American South through their utilization of social memory in the construction of new identity and community Some of the many African slaves escaping from southern plantations traveled to Florida and joined the Seminole Indians intermarried and came to call themselves Black Seminoles In 1821 pursued and harassed by European Americans through the First Seminole War approximately 200 members of this group fled to Andros Island where they remained essentially isolated for nearly 150 years Drawing on archival and secondary sources in the United States and the Bahamas as well as interviews with members of the present day Black Seminole community on Andros Island Howard reconstructs the story of the Red Bays people She chronicles their struggles as they adapt to a new environment and forge a new identity in this insular community and analyzes the former slaves relationship with their Native American companions Black Seminoles in contemporary Red Bays number approximately 290 the majority of whom are descended directly from the original settlers As part of her research Howard lived for a year in this small community recording its oral history and analyzing the ways in which that history informed the evolving identity of the people Her treatment dispels the air of mystery surrounding the Black Seminoles of Andros and provides a foundation for further anthropological and historical investigations A History of the Bahamian People Michael Craton, Gail Saunders, 1992 The present work concludes the important and monumental undertaking of Islanders in the Stream A History of the Bahamian People creating the most thorough and comprehensive history yet written of a Caribbean country and its people In the first volume Michael Craton and Gail Saunders traced the developments of a unique archipelagic nation from aboriginal times to the period just before emancipation This long awaited second volume offers a description and interpretation of the social developments of the Bahamas in the years from 1830 to the present Volume Two divides this period into three chronological sections dealing first with adjustments to emancipation by former masters and former slaves between 1834 and 1900 followed by a study of the slow process of modernization between 1900 and 1973 that combines a systematic study of the stimulus of social change a candid examination of current problems and a penetrating but sympathetic analysis of what makes the Bahamas and Bahamians distinctive in the world This work is an eminent product of the New Social History intended for Bahamians others interested in the Bahamas and scholars alike It skillfully interweaves generalizations and regional comparisons with particular examples drawn from travelers accounts autobiographies private letters and the imaginative reconstruction of official dispatches and newspaper reports Lavishly illustrated with contemporary photographs and original maps it stands as a model for forthcoming histories of similar small ex colonial nations in the region The School World , 1911 New West Indian guide , 1992 World Atlas of
