Existential America George Cotkin, 2003-01-24 As Cotkin shows not only did Americans readily take to existentialism but they were already heirs to a rich tradition of thinkers from Jonathan Edwards and Herman Melville to Emily Dickinson and William James who had wrestled with the problems of existence and the contingency of the world long before Sartre and his colleagues After introducing the concept of an American existential tradition Cotkin examines how formal existentialism first arrived in America in the 1930s through discussion of Kierkegaard and the early vogue among New York intellectuals for the works of Sartre Beauvoir and Camus

The Church, The Gospel and Culture John Thornhill, 2024-10-31 John Thornhill 1929 2019 born in Brisbane Australia was educated at Marist Brothers Ashgrove and St John s College Woodlawn NSW After entering the Society of Mary Marist Fathers he was chosen for doctoral studies and ordained in Rome in 1955 John s life was mainly in theological ministry in teaching and guiding seminary students as an author theological consultant and in Adult Faith Education He was in turn Superior of the Marist Seminary Director of Sydney s Aquinas Academy a member of the Provincial Council He published books and many articles He had a special interest in the Church Christology the faith culture relationship all within an overall pastoral framework This collection of articles captures the scope and development of his theological concerns over many years Especially valuable and illuminating is the opening chapter in which we are invited to share with John as he reflects on his theological journey John Thornhill SM was one of Australia s most distinguished and respected theologians known and loved for his dedication to the Catholic community his gentleness and kindness and his zeal for the Gospel Apart from his several books including Sign and Promise A Theology of the Church for a Changing World 1988 and Making Australia Exploring Our National Conversation 1992 John contributed many articles to theological debate and Thomas Ryan sm and ATF Press have done us and John s legacy a fine service in gathering together some of these articles in this volume The essays collected here bear witness to key concerns of John's theological and pastoral work: the centrality of Jesus and his Gospel, the proclamation of the good news to Christian faith, ecumenism including a grateful recognition of Protestantism's emphasis on the Gospel of salvation, awareness of cultural and historical circumstances and the imperative for the Church to understand and creatively respond to the concrete contexts that its members inhabit, the centrality of Scripture to Christian faith and the importance of a theology of Scripture in the life of the Church, a theology that engages at the highest intellectual level with key currents of thought and as an open orthodoxy is receptive to whatever is true and life-giving in them. This collection reveals the heart of John's theological vocation to bring thought and scholarship to the service of believers to enable the Gospel to come alive in their midst. John's Marist charism emphasises a quiet, receptive presence to God. In these articles we are given some of the fruits of his own attentive presence for the sake of serving and accompanying the pilgrim Church.

The Idea of the Postmodern Hans Bertens, 2003-09-02 Hans Bertens's The Idea of the Postmodern is the first introductory historical overview of postmodernism to succeed in providing a witty and useful guide for today's student. An enjoyable and indispensable text.

Spirit-Word-Community Amos Yong, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002. How does one go about doing Christian theology? Yong explores this question by proposing a pneumatological trinitarian hermeneutic. Its thesis is that interpretation and theological method is an ongoing dialogue of Spirit, Word, Community of interpretive subjects as imaginative, obligated, and relational agents of the horizons of the interpreter, the biblical and ecclesial traditions, and the world and of founding historical and ongoing communities of faith and inquiry. Ecumenical perspectives on the topics of pneumatology, the doctrine of the Spirit, metaphysics, foundational pneumatology, epistemology, the pneumatological imagination, and trinitarian theology converge in this book to move forward the present discussion of theological method.
