The Fae Richards Photo Archive Zoe Leonard, Cheryl Dunye, 1996 Artwork by Zoe Leonard Contributions by Cheryl Dunye

The (re)mediation of Media in the Fae Richards Photo Archive Rebecca Schlossberg, 2014 The Fae Richards Photo Archive 1993 1996 by Zoe Leonard was originally made as source material for Cheryl Dunye's 1996 film The Watermelon Woman but has since been exhibited as a standalone artwork in over 14 exhibitions The film chronicles the making of a documentary on the fictional character Fae Richards an African American lesbian performer who played mammy or maid roles in popular films in the 1930s and starred in black cast race films in the 1940s Leonard's photographs authenticate Fae Richards lending credence and facticity to the character created by Dunye by illustrating her personal and professional life through photographs In this thesis I argue that the Archive is an important early example of archive as art that draws attention to the failings of the institutional archive of record to store and transmit information about people I examine the remediation or representation of one medium in another of the Archive across the frameworks of film and exhibition embedded as each medium is in a set of material social practices By first establishing a historically plausible visual record then revealing the Archive as a fiction Leonard critiques the archive as an authentic and necessary receptacle of knowledge and analog photography as its privileged medium Thus the Archive does not try to retroactively fill in the gaps of a partial history but instead reveals how history itself is constructed through specific uses of media

Art and Archive. Genealogy and Contemporaneity (1920-2010) Anna Maria Guasch, 2024-12-31 This book provides a comprehensive exploration of the relationship between art and the archive The author examines how artists have engaged with archival materials practices and methodologies throughout history from the avant garde movements of the early 20th century to contemporary artistic practices She explores the ways in which artists have appropriated transformed and recontextualized archival documents and narratives to create new meanings and perspectives on history memory and identity Guasch also discusses the role of the archive in shaping artistic production reception and historiography highlighting its significance as a site of cultural memory and knowledge production Through a series of case studies and theoretical reflections the book offers insights into the diverse ways in which artists have navigated the archive as a source of inspiration critique and intervention in the artistic process Art and Archive represents an archaeological and genealogical history of the relationships sometimes linear sometimes discontinuous between art and the archive The archive ceases to be a dusty space or a repository of historical artifacts to become an active discursive and relational system that establishes aesthetically socially and politically new relationships of temporality between past present and future in what is understood as the time of the future perfect

Art + Archive Sara Callahan, 2022-01-25 Art Archive provides an in depth analysis of the connection between art and the archive at the turn of the twenty first century The book examines how the archive emerged in art writing in the mid 1990s and how its subsequent ubiquity can be understood in light of wider social technological philosophical and art historical conditions and concerns Deftly combining writing on archives from different disciplines with artistic practices the book clarifies the function and meaning of one of the most persistent artworld buzzwords of recent years shedding light on the conceptual and historical implications of the so called archival turn in contemporary art With Other Eyes Lisa Bloom,1999 With Other Eyes demonstrates how feminist postcolonial and antiracist concerns can successfully be incorporated into the study of art

Selected Writings, Volume 2 Okwui Enwezor,2025-08-05 Selected Writings is a landmark two volume set of writings by the transformational art curator Okwui Enwezor that demonstrates his tireless efforts to decolonize the global contemporary art world Queer Moderns Alice T. Friedman,2025-05-27 A richly illustrated history of the glittering world of queer artistic life in the 1920s and 30s In Queer Moderns Alice Friedman tells the fascinating story of the queer avant garde of the 1920s and 30s in New York Paris and Venice as seen through the eyes of Max Ewing 1903 1934 a young musician photographer and man about town who although virtually unknown today moved in extraordinary circles In his photographs and letters we meet the rising stars of modern art music dance and literature and enter a world of interracial friendship queer space and experimentation that shone brightly before being swept away by the Depression It is a remarkable story that reveals that the history of modernism is more queer and more Black than previously recognized In the 1920s Ewing became part of an international coterie of artists led by Carl Van Vechten and Muriel Draper In Europe he was entertained by Gertrude Stein met Stravinsky and took a road trip with Romaine Brooks and Natalie Barney In 1928 in a closet in his apartment Ewing created the Gallery of Extraordinary Portraits an installation of photos of his favorite celebrities Black and white clothed and nude For his Carnival of Venice he took portraits of more than a hundred friends including Paul Robeson Berenice Abbott Isamu Noguchi Agnes de Mille and E E Cummings posed in front of a backdrop of Saint Mark s Square Like a character from a story by F Scott Fitzgerald Ewing joined the party and then died tragically unable to accept the end of his era or the lost dream of a new way of living His story sheds new light on modernism and an artistic milieu that was ahead of its time Ubiquity Jacob W. Lewis,Kyle Parry,2021-12-15 From its invention to the internet age photography has been considered universal pervasive and omnipresent This anthology of essays posits how the question of when photography came to be everywhere shapes our understanding of all manner of photographic media Whether looking at a portrait image on the polished silver surface of the daguerreotype or a viral image on the reflective glass of the smartphone the experience of looking at photographs and thinking with photography is inseparable from the idea of ubiquity that is the apparent ability to be everywhere at once While photography s distribution across cultures today is undeniable the insidious logics and pervasive myths that have governed its spread demand our critical attention now more than ever Archive Fever Okwui Enwezor,2008 Organized and written by renowned scholar and ICP Adjunct Curator Okwui Enwezor Archive Fever presents works by leading contemporary artists who use archival documents to rethink the meaning of identity history memory and loss Over the past thirty years successive generations have taken wide ranging approaches to the photographic and filmic

Catherine de Zegher,2006 More than thirty years after the birth of the modern women s movement and the beginnings of feminist art making and art history the time is ripe to examine the legacies of those revolutions In Women Artists at the Millennium artists art historians and critics examine the differences that feminist art practice and critical theory have made in late twentieth century art and the discourses surrounding it In 1971 when Linda Nochlin published her essay Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists in a special issue of Art News there were no women s studies no feminist theory no such thing as feminist art criticism there was instead a focus on the mythic figure of the great male artist through history Since then the woman artist has not simply been assimilated into the canon of greatness but has expanded art making into a multiplicity of practices with new parameters and perspectives In Women Artists at the Millennium artists including Martha Rosler and Yvonne Rainer reflect upon their own varied practices and art historians discuss the innovative work of such figures as Louise Bourgeois Lygia Clark Mona Hatoum and Carrie Mae Weems And Linda Nochlin considers changes since her landmark essay and looks to the future writing We will need all our wit and courage to make sure that women s voices are heard their work seen and written about
