The Romantic Nineties '90s Richard LeGallienne, 1926 Music, Modernity, and Publicness in India Tejaswi Niranjana, 2020-02-14 With the onset of modernity in twentieth century India new social arrangements gave rise to new forms of music making The musicians were no longer performing exclusively in the princely courts or in the private homes of the wealthy Not only did the act of listening to and appreciating music change it became an important feature of public life thus influencing how modernity shaped itself This volume attempts to study the connections between music and the creation of new ideas of publicness during the early twentieth century How was music labelled as folk or classical How did music come to play such a catalytic role in forming identities of nationhood politics or ethnicity And how did twentieth century technologies of sound reproduction and commercial marketing contribute to changing notions of cultural distinction Exploring these interdisciplinary questions across multiple languages regions and musical genres the essays provide fresh perspectives on the history of musicians and migration in colonial India the formation of modern spaces of performance and the articulation of national as well as nationalist traditions

Extraordinary Aesthetes Joseph Bristow, 2023-04-14 The fin de siècle not only designated the end of the Victorian epoch but also marked a significant turn towards modernism Extraordinary Aesthetes critically examines literary and visual artists from England Ireland and Scotland whose careers in poetry fiction and illustration flourished during the concluding years of the nineteenth century This collection draws special attention to the exceptional contributions that artists poets and novelists made to the cultural world of the late 1880s and 1890s The essays illuminate a range of established increasingly acknowledged and lesser known figures whose contributions to this brief but remarkably intense cultural period warrant close attention Such figures include the critically neglected Mabel Dearmer whose stunning illustrations appear in Evelyn Sharp's radical fairy tales for children

Equally noteworthy is the uncompromising short fiction of Ella D Arcy who played a pivotal role in editing the most famous journal of the 1890s The Yellow Book. The discussion extends to a range of legendary writers including Max Beerbohm Oscar Wilde and W B Yeats whose works are placed in dialogue with authors who gained prominence during this period. Bringing women's writing to the fore Extraordinary Aesthetes rebalances the achievements of artists and writers during the rapidly transforming cultural world of the fin de siècle.
