The Root is One Sydney Sipho Sepamla, 1982-01-01      Travel and the Pan African Imagination Tracy Keith Flemming, 2021-09-02

Travel and the Pan African Imagination explores the African Atlantic world as a productive theater or space where modernity racialized dominance and racialized resistance took form. The book stresses the importance of placing three Atlantic figures: the Charleston South Carolina based armed resistance leader Denmark Vesey, the West African emigration advocate Edward Wilmot Blyden, and the Christian missionary and teacher in Liberia as well as the United States Alexander Crummell within an Atlantic context and as African world community figures between the late eighteenth and early twentieth centuries. The book also examines the religious origins of Black Power ideology and modern Pan Africanism as products of the intense dialogue within the African world community about concepts of modernity, progress, and civilization. Tracy Keith Flemming identifies how travel and social mobility led to the generation of an ever more complex and dynamic Atlantic world and of a fluid and adaptive African world community imagination for those figures who were forced to operate within and against a racially framed universe. The vexing social position and symbolic figure of the African was central to the dilemmas facing the racialized imagination of African world community figures and the discipline of Africology.

A Comparative Reading of Pan-Africanism and Afropolitanism Andrew Nyongesa, John Mugubi, 2024-10-07

This book is a response to the recent surge of formidable voices that consistently demean and attempt to reverse the gains of pan Africanism. Besides questioning its relevance, these voices supplant essential tenets of pan Africanism: Blackness, the narrative of Return, sanctity of the ancestral homeland, exposition of evils of colonialism, and African Literature with new postulations. These new suppositions deny race, accentuate onward migration, and diminish the ancestral homeland to any ordinary city to globetrot. These voices liken any reminiscence of colonial evils to Afro pessimism, pronounce African Literature dead on arrival, and proceed to substitute pan Africanism through studies which neglect pioneer and contemporary literary works, cultural productions, folklore, conversations on social media, blogs, Facebook, WhatsApp, and questionnaires to gauge their influence among Black peoples themselves. This study adopts a design that interrogates literary works, data from questionnaires, and social media to determine the relevance and influence of pan Africanism and the new paradigm.
