Ballet Today, 1962      The Royal Ballet Today Keith Money, 1969      International Dictionary of Ballet: L-Z Lorraine Nicholas, 1993 Arranged alphabetically from Adolphe Adam to Jiri Kylian this reference includes entries on individual artists individual ballets and on ballet companies      The New York Times Dance Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource      Dictionary Catalog of the Dance Collection New York Public Library. Dance Collection, 1974      The Royal Opera House in the Twentieth Century Frances Donaldson, 2011-09-28 The Royal Opera House Covent Garden is home of two of the most famous opera and ballet companies in the world In this official history Frances Donaldson discusses Covent Garden's many legendary achievements Der Rosenkavalier with Lotte Lehmann the unparalleled partnership of Fonteyn and Nureyev the recent Otello with Domingo She follows the attitude of the English to opera and their Opera House and the crusade for opera to be sung in English She looks at the internal politics and at the often charismatic personalities who have worked at the Opera House Thomas Beecham George Solti Maria Callas Tito Gobbi Ninette de Valois and Frederick Ashton Underlying the story despite the many successful seasons are the ever present problems of financial support and uncertainty of the future The history is superbly well documented from the Royal Opera House archives Comments from journalists of the time whose critical reviews sometimes led to singers of international acclaim refusing to return to Covent Garden lend spice to this fine analysis of administrative and artistic management at the Garden      Behind the Doors of Notorious Covent Garden Elizabeth Sharland, 2009-11-16 Covent Garden the cultural heart of London is notorious for its history ghosts and the Old Market Discover the special places unique to this area It would be interesting to read about the latest fashionable shops popular pubs and hotels that existed in Covent Garden a hundred years ago but there is no accurate record as far as I know This book therefore may be of interest in 100 years hence when we are all gone There are biographies of the people who lived and worked here of course and some of the restaurants and theatres they visited are still in existence but in 100 years time they may be all gone too While doing research for this book I came across the writings of theatre people who had lived and worked in Covent Garden when I was a student and who had inspired me although they were a little before my time They have a chapter in this book Clemence Dane Winifred Ashton Alan Dent Angus McBean James Agate all wrote about the area and their stories make fascinating reading      People of Today, 2006      Encountering Environments through the Arts Victoria Hunter, Shirley Chubb, 2025-03-31 This edited collection of essays and artist reflections presents perspectives from arts and humanities researchers exploring how individuals and collectives engage with relate to and experience environments The term environment is broadly conceived in this volume and encompasses rural landscapes and nature spaces urban and architectural sites institutional workplace and organisational spaces domestic environments and public and private realms Exploring what it means to encounter environments through embodied artistic and reflexive practices the essays and reflections draw on theoretical fields of feminist posthuman discourse new materialism anthropology human geography queer studies performing and fine arts art and health psychology and ecological perspectives Drawing on dialogues emerging from discursive border crossings between disciplines Encountering Environments through the Arts includes contributions from the fields of dance walking practice sonic arts visual art cultural and human geography somatic movement practice poetry and architecture This collection offers insights and reflections on environment and experience from a range of voices established and emerging scholars independent researchers and practitioner researchers within and beyond the academy Providing a truly interdisciplinary range of research that centres on notions of site specific practice and experience this is an invaluable contribution to performance studies and the wider field of arts and humanities The reflective accounts and articulation of research methods and approaches make this volume ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as scholars and researchers of performance studies dance and choreography studies cultural studies environmental humanities arts and social sciences
