Tokyo Apartments:

Public Housing in Japan. The Dōjunkai Apartments One Hundred Years on Marco Pompili, 2026-03-09 This first comprehensive English language examination of the Dōjunkai Foundation 1924 2024 is a must read for anyone interested in modern Japanese architecture The Dōjunkai Apartments 1924 1934 the Foundation's best known work introduced apartment living to Japan in response to crucial historical and social challenges such as urban reconstruction after the devastating earthquake of 1923 and the emergence of new working and middle classes The book's texts by prominent scholars and architects as well as a series of original drawings and photographs from the period bring the work of the Dōjunkai Foundation back to life 100 years after its founding While the Dōjunkai Apartments have unfortunately been lost in the rapid changes and greedy redevelopment typical of Japanese metropolises this book seeks to contribute to the preservation of their memory and their significance

Our Crumbling Foundation Gregor Craigie, 2024-03-05 NATIONAL BESTSELLER FINALIST FOR THE BALSILLIE PRIZE FOR PUBLIC POLICY A GLOBE AND MAIL BEST BOOK An urgent and illuminating examination of the unrelenting housing crisis Canadians find ourselves facing by Balsillie Prize finalist and CBC Radio host Gregor Craigie Our Crumbling Foundation offers real life solutions from around the world and hope for new housing innovation in the face of seemingly impossible obstacles Canada is experiencing a housing shortage Although house prices in major Canadian cities appeared to have topped out new housing isn't coming onto the market quickly enough Higher interest rates have only tightened the pressure on buyers and renters too as rising mortgage rates cost landlords more which are passed along to tenants in rent increases Even with recent federal budget commitments to bring more housing online by 2030 there will still be a shortfall of 3.5 million homes by then Gregor Craigie is a CBC journalist in Victoria one of the highest priced housing markets in the country On his daily radio show On The Island he's been talking for over 17 years to local experts and to those across the country about housing Craigie has travelled to many of the places he profiles in the book and in his interviews with Canadians he presents the human face of the shortfall as he speaks with renters owners and homeless people exploring their varying predicaments and perspectives He then shows through comparable profiles of people across the globe how other North American and international jurisdictions Tokyo Paris Berlin Helsinki Singapore Ireland to name a few are housing their citizens better faster and with determination solutions that could be put into practice here With passion knowledge and vigour Craigie explains how Canada reached this critical impasse and will convince those who may not yet recognize how badly our entire country is in need of change Our Crumbling Foundation provides hope for finding our way out of the crisis by recommending a number of approaches at all levels of government The prescription for how we re going to house ourselves and do so equitably requires not just a business solution nor simply a social solution but rather a combination of both working hand in hand with all levels of government and quickly in order to catch up with and outpace the needs of Canadians in this ever intensifying crisis over a basic human right
