Tomas Sanchez, 2003-04-30 April 30 May 13 2003 Tomás Sánchez Tomás Sánchez Requeiro, 2003 Tomás Sánchez. Ediz. Inglese Edward J. Sullivan, Tomás Sánchez Requeiro, 2003 This is the first comprehensive publication devoted to Tomas Sanchez one of the most important and celebrated living Cuban artists Sanchez is a commanding realist although his landscapes are imagined or dreamed His work is meticulous in its breath taking detail but the objective of the artist is not so much the recreation of reality as it is the display of a magical realism In this respect Sanchez is closer perhaps to Gabriel Garcia Marquez than to the North American model of hyperrealism This volume follows the development of Sanchez s work chronologically from his early expressionist paintings to his most recent landscapes Tomás Sánchez Tomás Sánchez Requeiro, 2005 November 28 2005 December 30 2005 Art on Paper, 2003 Tomás Sánchez, 1999

Library, 2001 The Emerald Handbook of Public Administration in Latin America B. Guy Peters, Carlos Alba Tercedor, Conrado Ramos, 2021-01-12 This handbook presents contemporary research on public administration in Latin America The first section explores the range of administrative systems in existence across the region The second portion of the book discusses important topics such as public personnel management accountability and policy coordination in Latin America How to Belong Belinda A. Stillion Southard, 2018-10-05 In How to Belong Belinda Stillion Southard examines how women leaders throughout the world have asserted their rhetorical agency in troubling economic social and political conditions Rather than utilizing the concept of citizenship to bolster political influence the women in the case studies presented here rely on the power of relationships to create a more habitable world With the rise of global capitalism many nation states that have profited from invigorated flows of capital have also responded to the threat of increased human mobility by heightening national citizenship s exclusionary power Through a series of case studies that include women grassroots protesters a woman president and a woman United Nations director Stillion Southard analyzes several examples of women all as embodied subjects in a particular transnational context pushing back against this often violent rise in nationalist rhetoric While scholars have typically used the concept of citizenship to explain what it means to belong Stillion Southard instead shows how these women have reimagined belonging in ways that have enabled them to create national regional and global communities As part of a broader conversation centered on exposing the violence of national citizenship and proposing ways of rejecting that violence this book seeks to provide answers through the powerful rhetorical practices of resilient and inspiring women who have successfully negotiated what it means to belong to be included and to enact change beyond the boundaries of citizenship Leonard's Annual Price Index of Art Auctions ,1997

Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 2008 Art Nexus ,2006 World Collectors Annuary ,1994 Encyclopedia of Cuba Luis Martínez-Fernández, 2003 An overview of Cuba that presents hundreds of entries alphabetized within five categories including the performing arts sports and Cuban diaspora and also includes several documents from the country s history On Paper ,2000 January 18 February 19 2000 Reassembling Rubbish Josh Lepawsky, 2018-04-13 An examination of the global trade and traffic in discarded electronics that reframes the question of the right thing to do with e waste The prevailing storyline about the problem of electronic waste frames e waste as generated by consumers in developed countries and dumped on people and places in developing countries In Reassembling Rubbish Josh Lepawsky offers a different view In an innovative analysis of the global trade and traffic in discarded electronics Lepawsky reframes the question of the right thing to do with e waste mapping the complex flows of electronic materials He counters the assumption that e waste is a post consumer problem pointing out that waste occurs at all stages of electronic materials existence and calls attention to the under researched world of reuse and repair Lepawsky explains that there are conflicting legal distinctions between electronic waste and non waste and examines a legal case that illustrates the consequences He shows that patterns of trade do not support the dominant narrative of e waste dumping but rather represent the dynamic ecologies of repair refurbishment and materials recovery He asks how we know waste how we measure it and how we construe it and how this affects our efforts to mitigate it We might not put so much faith in household recycling if we counted the more massive amounts of pre consumer electronic waste as official e waste Lepawsky charts the minescapescapes productionscapescapes and clickscapes of electronics and the uneven discardscapescapes they produce Finally he considers both conventional and unconventional e waste solutions including decriminalizing export for reuse repair and upgrade enabling ethical trade in electronics reuse repair refurbishment and recycling implementing extended producer responsibility and instituting robust forms of public oversight
