Bailey,2019-08-31 From the award winning author of the Art Hardin series Private Heat Dying Embers and Dead Bang comes a compelling new mystery D j Noir Ray Kerze hasn t been having the best time of it His closest friends are the guys in line with him at the liquor store before breakfast He lives in his office in the decaying heart of Detroit and that s only because the building is so far gone no one shows up to collect rent An ex cop turned private investigator he s not so much investigating as drowning himself in whiskey and helping out other struggling denizens of downtown in his sober moments His life becomes a bit more interesting and some might say worth living when a young woman shows up at his office and asks him to kill her She s a paying customer with nearly twelve dollars in cash so first breakfast and then he can figure out why the young woman wants him to do her in It s a novel of murder con jobs and just a little bit of romance full of twists and surprises that will have you wondering about a lot more than whodunit It s highly original narrative structure consistently subordinating events to voices allows Bailey and his readers to inhabit a series of characters that morph from cartoon tough guys and gals to people worth caring about once you get to see them from outside and inside Kirkus Reviews The Survey,1926 *People v.
