American Silver in the Art Institute of Chicago Art Institute of Chicago, 2016-01-01 The history of American silver offers invaluable insights into the economic and cultural history of the nation itself. Published here for the first time, the Art Institute of Chicago's superb collection embodies innovation and beauty from the colonial era to the present. In the 17th century, silversmiths brought the fashions of their homelands to the colonies, and in the early 18th century, new forms arose as technology diversified production. Demand increased in the 19th century as the Industrial Revolution took hold. In the 20th century, modernism changed the shape of silver inside and outside the home. This beautifully illustrated volume presents highlights from the collection with stunning photography and entries from leading specialists. In-depth essays relate a fascinating story about eating, drinking, and entertaining that spans the history of the Republic and trace the development of the Art Institute's holdings of American silver over nearly a century. The Art of Silver Jewellery René van der Star, John Beringen, 2006 From the nomad jewellery of Mongolia and Tibet to the evocative silver and gold necklaces, bracelets, rings, and earrings of the minority peoples of China, this book celebrates the beauty of 260 objects from the late 19th and early 20th centuries and will serve as the ultimate reference book on the jewellery of the minorities of China. Four essays by leading experts disclose the field for the general reader and provide valuable background information for jewellers, designers, art historians, collectors, dealers, and auctioneers. The influences of history, social structure, economics, and politics illuminate the context of these fine objects of exquisite beauty and great originality. In addition to the hundreds of photographs of the jewellery, the volume includes a selection of colourful textiles and field photographs that put the jewellery in their context. Complete with detailed information about each individual object, including size, weight, material, function, and area of origin, this sumptuous volume is the most comprehensive study of the subject available. Catalogue of Rare Objects in Brass, Leathers and Wood Illustrating the Art of Old Japan Bunkio Matsuki, American Art Association, 1903 American Silver in the Art Institute of Chicago Elizabeth McGoey, 2018 The history of American silver offers invaluable insights into the economic and cultural history of the nation itself.
