Books in Numbers Lucille Chia,2007 This collection of essays is a result of an academic conference entitled Books in Numbers held in celebration of the seventy fifth anniversary of the Harvard Yenching Library The aim of this conference was to celebrate the book culture of East Asia by comparing and contrasting the development of manuscript and print culture in each of the separate cultural areas of the region China Korea Japan Vietnam and Central Asia The essays do not attempt to offer a complete picture of the history of writing and the book in East Asia but rather they hope to make a modest contribution by highlighting the differential developments in each of the cultural regions as they were influenced by political economic social and cultural factors

Pettid,Kil Cha Pettid,2009 Review The story is about a girl who is chosen to receive a literary education in the Korean palace She among the other 9 girls excell at poetry and live truely blessed lives compared to the average life of someone of their birth and sex The main heartbreak of all the girls but more so for Unyoung is that she will never be allowed to marry or have a romantic relationship One day a poet prodigy comes to the palace to meet with the prince who is the girl s patron He writes such sublim poetry that Unyong falls in love with him and writes to him at which point he falls in love with her The book is about their love affair and the hardships they must endure due to confucious society that disallows them their natural disposition from http www amazon com Dec 17 2014
