

Fair Fighting Rules Worksheet

Name Jake Williams

Date 10/23/2022

Fair fighting is a part of any healthy relationship. When disagreements arise, keeping the conversation respectful, productive, and focused on finding a compromise is vital. This worksheet provides a few for engaging in fair fights and can be used as a helpful guide when conversations become heated.

Rule 1: Before starting, ask yourself why you are upset

Before engaging in a disagreement, take some time to think about the root cause of your feelings. Are you feeling upset because of a seemingly insignificant detail, such as your partner leaving mustard on the counter, or is it the result of a more significant issue, such as feeling like you are disproportionately responsible for housework?

Reflecting on your emotions can help you target the real issue rather than arguing about surface-level matters.

Rule 2: Focus on one topic at a time

When tackling a disagreement, it can be easy to get off-track. Before entering a conversation, set an agenda with your partner and agree on what you plan to discuss. If there are multiple points of contention, take turns talking and addressing each issue one at a time. This will help keep the conversation focused and productive.

Rule 3: Listen to your partner

Before you respond to your partner's comments, please take a few moments to let them finish their thoughts and fully digest what they are saying. This will allow you to understand their point of view better and show them that you respect their opinion and are willing to have an honest dialogue with them.

Rule 4: Speak respectfully

It can be easy to slip into the disrespectful language without thinking about it during an argument, but remember that words can have a lasting effect on your partner's emotions. Avoid attacking tones or words that belittle your partner's feelings or opinions; instead, focus on speaking calmly and clearly about the issue.
