Stiller, 2021-11-05 Honorable Mention for the 2024 James B Palais Prize for English Language Scholarly books published on Korea from the Association for Asian Studies Winner of the 2022 Patricia Buckley Ebrey Prize sponsored by the American Historical Association An eye opening journey through time in Korea s Diamond Mountains North Korea s K mgangsan is one of Asia s most celebrated sacred mountain ranges comparable in fame to Mount Tai in China and Mount Fuji in Japan Carving Status at K mgangsan marks a paradigm shift in the research about East Asian mountains by introducing an entirely new field autographic rock graffiti The book details how late Chos n ca 1600 1900 CE Korean elite travelers used K mgangsan to demonstrate their high social status by carving inscriptions naming sites and joining the literary pedigree of visitors to renowned locales Such travel practices show how social competition emerged in the spatial context of a landscape Hence Carving Status at K mgangsan argues for an expansion of accepted historical narratives on travel and mountain space in premodern East Asia Rather than interpreting pilgrimage routes as exclusively religious or tourist in K mgangsan s case they were also an important site of collective memory A journey to K mgangsan to view and contribute to its sites of memory was an endeavor that late Chos n Koreans hoped to achieve in their lives Based on multidisciplinary research drawing on literary writings court records gazetteers maps songs calligraphy and paintings Carving Status at K mgangsan is the first historical study of this practice It will appeal to scholars in fields ranging from East Asian history literature and geography to pilgrimage studies and art history Winner of the 2022 Patricia Buckley Ebrey Prize for a distinguished book on the history of China proper Vietnam Chinese Central Asia Mongolia Manchuria Korea or Japan prior to 1800 sponsored by the American Historical Association G.K. An Asian Frontier Robert Oppenheim,2016-06 In the nineteenth century the predominant focus of American anthropology centered on the native peoples of North America and most anthropologists would argue that Korea during this period was hardly a cultural area of great anthropological interest However this perspective underestimates Korea as a significant object of concern for American anthropology during the period from 1882 to 1945 otherwise a turbulent transitional period in Korea s history An Asian Frontier focuses on the dialogue between the American anthropological tradition and Korea from Korea s first treaty with the United States to the end of World War II with the goal of rereading anthropology s history and theoretical development through its Pacific frontier Drawing on notebooks and personal correspondence as well as the publications of anthropologists of the day Robert Oppenheim shows how and why Korea became an important object of study with for instance more published about Korea in the pages of American Anthropologist before 1900 than would be seen for decades after Oppenheim chronicles the actions of American collectors Korean mediators and metropolitan curators who first created Korean anthropological exhibitions for the public He moves on to examine anthropologists such as Ale Hrdlicka Walter Hough Stewart Culin Frederick Starr and Frank Hamilton Cushing who fit Korea into frameworks of evolution culture and race even as they engaged questions of imperialism that were raised by Japan s colonization of the country In tracing the development of American anthropology s understanding of Korea Oppenheim discloses the legacy present in our ongoing understanding of Korea and of anthropology s past □□□□ Yōng-gi Kim,1971 Bibliographic Guide to East Asian Studies ,1990 Urinara misulsa, tong'yang misulsa K.
