I Love You One Thousand Houses Donald Preston, 2009-06 When I retired rich at age 55 I should have been more afraid I was no longer a highly paid CEO in corporate America but I had no apprehension about climbing down I had plenty of money literally millions of dollars and figured I could easily handle my transition into an exciting fun filled retirement Las Vegas was calling and Palm Springs beckoned Then without warning I was pounded with a series of lethal storms that made my remarkable ascent in the business world look easy After college I had been unstoppable rapidly climbing up a businessman riding high on a fabulous serendipitous winning streak My life was also the proverbial story of rags to riches I had to learn how to climb out of the box of poverty and low expectations into which I was born In my youth I learned lessons that taught me how to cope survive and win in spite of vast adversarial forces I saw and felt but never fully comprehended When destructive personal losses swept through my post retirement life the old lessons that had taken me to the top in business were useless I decided to revisit my entire life I desperately needed to find the lessons I must have missed along the way It was a matter of life and death This memoir is the record of that amazing search
