Pilling, 2015-08-20 Originally published in 1981 This book looks at the autobiographical work of nine twentieth century writers Henry Adams Henry James W B Yeats Boris Pasternak Leiris Jean Paul Sartre Vladimir Nabokov Henry Green and Adrian Stokes The author argues that often the writer has shaped his life through his craft coming to understand the pattern of his own existence through the formalism of language In each case the writer stamps his personality on the work by means of a distinctive verbal surface whose discipline enables him to evade narrow egotism and forces both reader and writer into an act of collaboration and corroboration Written at a time when criticism was turning to focus on the relation between the reader and the text this study added a provocative dimension to the debate and is still an important read today Tragedy After Nietzsche Paul Gordon, 2001 In defining rapturous superabundance Gordon explicates the tension between Apollonian principles of preservation and orderly boundaries Exemplified in Aristotle's theory of tragedy and an ecstatic Dionysian energy essentially a manifestation of will that ruptures boundaries Aristotle denied this disruptive element by focusing on tragedy as a rational framework for redefining moral boundaries Nietzsche seized on it as the core of his theory of tragedy
