Saunders, 1996 This timely and thought provoking collection of essays offers a detailed examination of contemporary architectural practice in the 1990s Reflections on Architectural Practices in the Nineties grew out of a year long symposium at the Harvard University Graduate School of Design which took stock of pressing issues in order to speculate on future paths for both education and practice Among the many challenges the architecture profession is currently facing are a constantly volatile economic climate rapid technological change and a general globalization of society Reflections presents 29 essays by leading critics scholars and designers essays that grapple with these and other issues and provide strategies for confronting them Several additional perspectives are presented through brief passages and images of built work so that the whole forms a collage of broad diverse viewpoints George Baird Thomas Fisher and Andrew Saint are among those who provide overviews of architectural practice and education Mack Scogin Carl Sapers and David Harvey among others discuss contemporary professional responsibilities and ethics Forms of practice in the 1990s are discussed by a variety of participants including Max Bond David Dillon Rob Quigley and Sharon Zukin Rem Koolhaas Saskia Sassen and William Lazonick with others discuss the impact of the global economy on architecture Finally Peter G Rowe presents some possible implications for design education Reflections on Architectural Practice in the Nineties is an essential compendium for anyone in the ever changing future of architecture Architectural Record ,1997 Computing for Architects R. A. Reynolds,1993 A fully updated edition of this well regarded book which describes the use and drawbacks of computers to architects with little or no technical knowledge It serves also as a reference work for those with some skills in the subject
