When it comes to making Marines no one does it better than the basic training drill instructors at Parris Island South Carolina and San Diego California But when it came down to making men Vietnam ranked at the top of the list An 18 year old teenager who found himself in combat became a man before he could buy a squirrel rifle or a beer back home Here is the story of some of those young men Dawson and Rooker as well as Swan Taggart Sweet Georgia Gunny Huggins Rabi and Putt Putt who met the world as Marines and became men as they faced horrendous ambushes unbearable heat furious mosquitoes and fierce combat The all but fanatical

North Vietnamese soldiers and the Viet Cong saw all Americans especially the Marines as an enemy who should be killed at every opportunity. Firefights blew up in unexpected places at any moment during the undeclared war. As the young Marines grew quickly into manhood they began to wonder if their best Marine Corps training would be good enough for them to survive. Even in all the madness of war there were times of light humor among friends and comrades but always there was the threat that any minute a deathblow could erupt with no warning. Doubts and dreams were shared among the young Marines. Fear became a constant partner and stress was always a faithful companion. They learned to live with a deep in the stomach churning as they fully recognized that each minute could be their last. When a Marine Recon faced the feared enemy Dawson and Rooker found themselves in the midst of trying to formulate and carry out a dangerous plan. What really happened may surprise you it did them.

The experience of Florida particularly the underdeveloped north central areas close to modern Disneyfied Orlando profoundly affected a Yankee child with Canadian parents. The Florida Blaise describes is little changed since the Civil War. The stories in this volume trace a young writer's journey towards his life's work. By the close of his Florida experience he has discovered a way of integrating his Canadian and especially his French Canadian background into a sub-tropical foreground. Included are two very early stories A Fish Like a Buzzard and Giant Turtle Gliding in the Dark which have not previously been published in book form. Southern Stories assembles the best of Clark Blaise's early work in one collection. His powerful writing is as relevant to our times now as it was when these stories first appeared. Included here are stories from A North American Education Tribal Justice Man and His World and Resident Alien.
