Morrison Thomas Morrison (LL.D.), 1878 Reading-literature Harriette Taylor Treadwell, Margaret Free, 1915 Wheeler's Graded Literary Readers with Interpretations William Iler Crane, 2017-07-19 Excerpt from Wheeler's Graded Literary Readers With Interpretations A Sixth Reader It is not possible to do anything rationally without first having in our possession a perfectly clear conception of the purpose for which the thing is done for the purpose is the only thing that can show how the thing is to be done correctly Therefore in the preparation of a series of readers the first thing to be determined is The Purpose of Teaching Reading The Purpose of Teaching Reading is unquestionably to enable the child to get from a printed page the Images the Thoughts and the Emotions of the author who wrote the page No good literature has been really read unless the reader has been able to attain from the printed page these three things the Images the Thoughts and the Emotions of the writer The teaching of reading consists in using all of those processes which will lead the child most directly and certainly to the ability to interpret correctly the printed page About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original

The Boys' and Girls' Readers Emma Miller Bolenius,1919 Manual for Teaching the Sixth Reader David Harris Russell,1961 Peoples and countries Joseph Russell Smith,1922 The Boys' and Girls' Readers Emma Miller Bolenius,2015-07-14 Excerpt from The Boys and Girls Readers Fourth Reader Fifth Reader Sixth Reader The object of this Manual is to bring enthusiasm into the teaching of reading and to show various ways in which to motivate the reading period to get better results To do this two things are necessary a to know what we are expected to accomplish in reading by the end of the sixth grade and b to have a vision of what the teaching of reading involves In that excellent Bulletin entitled The Reorganization of English in Secondary Schools issued by the Department of the Interior in 1917 the following standards are laid down for the end of the sixth grade At the end of the sixth grade pupils should be able

- 1 To express clearly and consecutively either in speech or in writing ideas which are familiar and firmly grasped
- 2 to avoid gross grammatical errors
- 3 to compose and mail a letter
- 4 to spell their own written vocabulary
- 5 to read silently and after one reading to reproduce the substance of a simple short story news item or lesson
- 6 to read aloud readily and intelligently simple news items lessons from textbooks or literature of such difficulty as The Ride of Paul Revere or Dickens s A Christmas Carol
- 7 to quote accurately and understandingly several short poems such as Bennett s The Flag Goes B and Emerson s The Mountain and the Squirrel

We see therefore three phases of the reading problem silent reading oral reading and appreciation Throughout this Manual these three are treated in detail We must have in the second place a vision of what the teaching of reading involves or of the various kinds of reading needed in life The report alluded to above expresses the purposes of reading in ordinary life so lucidly that we quote Knowledge of books and power to read them thoughtfully and with appreciation includes a Ability to find pleasure in reading books by the better authors both standard and contemporary with an increasing knowledge of such books and increasing ability to distinguish what is really good from what is trivial and weak About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www
