entails the next thing you are going to want to do is avoid the following conversation killers if you want the other person to stick around long enough

Learn to Listen When you are in a conversation it is just as important to make the other person feel as though you are listening as it is to be actively engaged in whatever it is they are saying

Dealing with Awkward Silences No matter how well any conversation is going there are always going to be moments when everyone involved runs out of things to say at the same time

Starting a Conversation Now that you have learned what can turn a conversation from neutral to either good or bad it is time to start thinking about the best way to start a conversation with a stranger regardless of the time or the place

Ending a Conversation When it comes to ending a conversation properly the most important thing to remember is that you always need to have a clear agenda when doing so

Fake It Until You Make It If you find that despite your best efforts you can't muster up the courage to talk to strangers just to make it easier for you to talk to strangers in the near and distant future there is one simple thing that you can do to make the entire practicing process much more manageable

Conversing with Strangers When it comes to making conversation starting one up with a stranger that you have no context for interacting with is definitely the hardest hurdle to overcome

Conversing with Colleagues Whether you are just starting out at a new job or are simply looking for a way to connect more with your current co-workers who you can't seem to ingratiate yourself too finding the right things to talk about at work can be tricky
