Sports Journalism Patrick S. Washburn, Chris Lamb, 2020-07-01. Patrick S. Washburn and Chris Lamb tell the full story of the past, the present, and to a degree the future of American sports journalism. Sports Journalism chronicles how and why technology, religion, social movements, immigration, racism, sexism, social media, athletes, and sportswriters and broadcasters changed sports, as well as how sports are covered and how news about sports are presented and disseminated. One of the influential factors in sports coverage is the upswing in the number of women sports reporters in the last forty years. Sports Journalism also examines the ethics of sports journalism, how sports coverage frequently has differed from that of non-sports news, and how the internet has spawned a set of new ethical issues.

Insights on Reporting Sports in the Digital Age Roger Domeneghetti, 2021-07-19. This first book in the Journalism Insights series examines the major practical and ethical challenges confronting contemporary sports journalists, which have emerged from or been exacerbated by the use of digital and social media. Combining both quantitative and qualitative research and contributions from industry experts in sports reporting across Europe, America, and Australia, the collection offers a valuable look at the digital sports reporting industry today. Issues discussed in the text include the ethical questions created by social media abuse received by sports journalists, the impact of social media on narratives about gender and race, and the silencing of journalists over the issue of trans athletes, as well as the impact on traditional aspects of sports journalism, such as the match report. The book features first-hand accounts from leading sports reporters and scholars about how these changes have affected the industry and sets out what best practice looks like in this field today. This book will be a useful resource for scholars and students working in the fields of journalism, media, sports, and communication, as well as for current sports journalism practitioners interested in the future of a changing industry.
