Be Still and Know Patrick R. Manning,2025-10-07 Discover how the Christian contemplative tradition can enhance teaching and learning The goal of Christian education is distinctive to help students develop into well integrated human beings and faithful disciples Yet Christian schools are beset by many of the same challenges that plague virtually all schools today a culture of distraction and deteriorating mental health the erosion of community and social bonds not to mention widespread disaffiliation from traditional religious institutions Drawing upon current research in psychology neuroscience education and spirituality Be Still and Know presents the contemplative Christian tradition as an untapped resource for addressing these challenges and helping Christian schools to better fulfill their mission In these pages veteran educator Patrick Manning guides readers through a school day where they experience people time space and school activities in a more contemplative manner He invites readers to engage in Christian contemplative practices for themselves through a series of meditations He also comes alongside them to assess the significant challenges of working in education today and to develop practical responses grounded in the wisdom of the Christian contemplative tradition as well as current research Educators will come away from this book personally renewed and professionally equipped with new strategies for teaching researching working with others building community playing and ordering time in their classrooms and schools Wise timely and transformative Be Still and Know is a vital resource for teachers and administrators in Christian schools
