The New Urban Gothic Holly-Gale Millette, Ruth Heholt, 2020-10-17 This collection explores global dystopic grotesque and retold narratives of degeneration ecological and economic ruin dystopia and inequality in contemporary fictions set in the urban space Divided into three sections Identities and Histories Ruin and Residue and Global Gothic The New Urban Gothic explores our anxieties and preoccupation with social inequalities precarity and the peripheral that are found in so many new fictions across various media Focusing on non canonical Gothic global cities this distinctive collection discusses urban centres in England s Black Country Moscow Detroit Seoul Hong Kong Bangkok Singapore Dehli Srinigar Shanghai and Barcelona as well as cities of the imaginary the digital and the animated This book will appeal to anyone interested in the intersections of time place space and media in contemporary Gothic Studies The New Urban Gothic casts reflections and shadows on the age of the Anthropocene The Urban Sublime in American Literary Naturalism Christophe Den Tandt,1998 In this dynamic reappraisal of American literary naturalism Christophe Den Tandt connects late nineteenth century fiction to its romantic urban gothic roots and to recent discussions of the sublime in postmodern theory Den Tandt focuses on aspects of naturalist novels their use of hyperbole and hysteria of the grotesque and the abject of uncanniness and mesmerism that have often been left in the periphery of naturalist discourse He argues that realistic strategies of literary representation can never succeed in depicting the urban environment since the logic of the city rests on a network of hidden relations Naturalist texts try to resolve this dilemma by opposing sublime components and realistic documentary elements

Horror Noir Paul Meehan,2014-01-10 This critical survey examines the historical and thematic relationships between two of the cinema s most popular genres horror and film noir The influence of 1930s and 1940s era horror films on the development of noir is detailed with analyses of more than 100 motion pictures in which noir criminality and mystery meld with supernatural and psychological horror Included are the films based on popular horror mystery radio shows The Whistler Inner Sanctum the works of RKO producer Val Lewton Cat People The Seventh Victim and Alfred Hitchcock s psychological ghost stories Also discussed are gothic and costume horror noirs set in the 19th century The Picture of Dorian Gray Hangover Square the noir elements of more recent films and the film noir aspects of the Hannibal Lecter movies and other serial killer thrillers Victorian Visions of Suburban Utopia Nathaniel Robert Walker,2020-11-17 The rise of suburbs and disinvestment from cities have been defining features of life in many countries over the course of the twentieth century In Victorian Visions of Suburban Utopia Nathaniel Walker asks why did we abandon our dense complex urban places and seek to find the best of the city and the country in the flowery suburbs While looking back at the architecture and urban design of the 1800s offers some answers Walker argues that a great missing piece of the story can be found in Victorian utopian literature The replacement of cities with high tech suburbs was repeatedly imagined and breathlessly described in the socialist dreams and science fiction fantasies of dozens of British and American authors Some of these visionaries such as Robert Owen Edward Bulwer Lytton Edward Bellamy William Morris Ebenezer Howard and H G Wells are enduringly famous while others were street vendors or amateur chemists who have been all but forgotten Together they fashioned strange and beautiful imaginary worlds built of synthetic gemstones lacy metal colonnades and unbreakable glass staffed by robotic servants and teeming with flying carriages As varied as their futuristic visions could be Walker reveals how most of them were unified by a single desperate plea for humanity to have a future worth living we must abandon our smoky poor chaotic Babylonian cities for a life in shimmering gardens Fantasy and Horror Neil Barron,1999-06-17 More than 2 300 works of fiction and poetry are discussed each cross referenced to other works with similar or contrasting themes Winners and nominees for major awards are identified Books that are part of a series are flagged with a complete list of books in series included in a final chapter along with a comprehensive list of awards of translations and of young adult and children s books
