Ursula Exploring Sheila Lavelle, 1989-03-01 Exploring Creativity Brian Moeran, Bo T. Christensen, 2013-03-21
Explores creativity and accompanying evaluative practices in a series of richly textured ethnographic case studies of creative industries Howard Barker's Theatre: Wrestling with Catastrophe James Reynolds, Andy W. Smith, 2015-07-30
Howard Barker and The Wrestling School have been seen as marginal to the major concerns of British theatre problematic in their staging and challenging in the ideas they explore Yet Barker's writing career spans six decades he is the only living writer to have been accorded an entire season with the Royal Shakespeare Company and The Wrestling School produces theatre of such a striking quality that it earned continuous Arts Council funding for nearly 20 years Wrestling with Catastrophe challenges existing ways of reading Barker's theatre practice and plays and provides new ways into his work It brings together conversations with theatre makers from in and outside The Wrestling School with first hand accounts of the company's practice and a selection of critical readings The book's combining of testimony from key Wrestling School practitioners with alternative practical perspectives and with analysis by both established and emerging scholars ensures that a spectrum of understanding emerges that is rich in both breadth and depth In its consideration of the full range of Barker's aesthetic concerns including text direction design acting narrative form poetry appropriation painting photography electronic media technology puppetry and theatre space the volume makes a radical re-evaluation of Barker's theatre possible Loving Corrections adrienne maree brown, 2024-08-20
New York Times bestselling author adrienne maree brown knows we need each other more than ever and offers loving corrections a roadmap towards collective power righting wrongs and true belonging This selection of prescient compassionate essays explores patterns we engage in that are rooted in limited thinking Through a lens of loving correction rather than mere critique author adrienne maree brown helps us reimagine how to hold ourselves our loved ones and our communities accountable by setting clear boundaries engaging in reflection and nurturing honest relationships Loving Corrections is divided into two sections with the first portion featuring new essays including A Word for White People and Relinquishing the Patriarchy and writing on topics like moving from fragility to fortitude disability and navigating critique within activist communities The second section expands and updates pieces from brown's popular monthly column Murmurations in YES Magazine that explore accountability within oneself and community with depth inventiveness and empathy Along with allowing us more authentic access to ourselves and to each other the corrections in the book's title are intended to explore and break identity based patterns including white supremacy fragility patriarchy and ableism brown also offers practical guidance on how to apologize and be accountable from our nuanced positions of power history and resources Building on her previous work especially Holding Change and We Will Not Cancel Us brown reminds us how much we need each other It is only through relationship that we learn how to be understand our impact on others and explore small shifts that may yield remarkable collective change Ursula's Freshman
