What is a Butterfly Gene Darby, 1958 Describes different types of butterflies their life cycles their body functions and what they eat

A Butterfly's Life (Readaloud) Pam Holden, 2021-04-30 What is a life cycle A butterfly goes through four stages in its life It changes into something different each time It starts as a tiny egg and later it becomes a chrysalis More changes happen inside the chrysalis until at last a beautiful butterfly is ready to fly away

One Beat of a Butterfly's Heart Ronald Callander, 2014-10-19 In this book we are given a unique view of East Africa of the 1950s not the stereotyped picture of wildlife safaris and leaping Masai but the emerging independence struggle of a new African nation from the viewpoint of a white police officer in an exceptionally detailed thoroughly readable firsthand account of a rare period of recent history It tells how an Australian veteran fresh from the Korean War became a colonial police officer in Tanganyika Territory later Tanzania after federation with the offshore islands of Zanzibar in 1964 The reader is taken on a journey which tourists in Africa never see from back alleys and police cells in the polyglot city of Dar es Salaam to snake infested camps on Uganda Ruanda border patrols and on police field force emergency operations from barracks at the foot of Kilimanjaro There is much here to discover about a mostly benign semi colonial period in Africa which lasted less than fifty years passing in one African s description as briefly as a butterfly s heartbeat where a few conscientious white administrators and their loyal African assistants managed vast regions of a desolate territory with remarkably selfless care and scarce resources where things worked most of the time but sometimes where chaos reigned It is about the country itself its ubiquitous animals and its people at close range including villagers criminals hunters witch doctors and colonial officials but most of all the African askari policemen who were the author s close and often only companions
