String Sculpture:

DIY String Art Jesse Dresbach, 2016-06-14 This isn't your summer camp string art. String art is making a comeback with seemingly endless new designs and author Jesse Dresbach's modern, more flexible approach lets you methodically string away to your heart's content. This book is full of patterns, simple to more intricate designs that help you quickly get to the fun part of the craft. The stringing Jesse walks you through his tool room and even includes tips on cutting and preparing the right size boards. He shares how to structure the nails using paper patterns and details several stringing techniques. DIY String Art includes simple geometrics, nature-inspired motifs worked on tree slices, zodiac signs, and even patterns for negative space string art where you fill in the entire board everywhere but inside the chosen motif. These are cool urban designs, some with random string work, some with faceted sections, and still others with specific string paths to achieve more uniform results, and they look amazing no matter where you hang them. Jesse's double wrap technique lets you add pronounced details and even create a string frame. He's thought of basically everything you need to know to string a gallery of modern art.

Minimal Art Daniel Marzona, 2004 The bare minimum. Often regarded as a backlash against abstract expressionism, Minimalism was characterized by simplified, stripped-down forms and materials used to express ideas in a direct and impersonal manner. By presenting artworks as simple objects, minimalist artists sought to communicate esthetic ideals without reference to expressive or historical themes. This critical movement, which began in the 1960s and branched out into land art, performance art, and conceptual art, is still a major influence today. This book explains the how, why, where, and when of Minimal Art and the artists who helped define it. Featured artists: Carl Andre, Stephen Antonakos, Jo Baer, Larry Bell, Ronald Bladen, Walter De Maria, Dan Flavin, Robert Grosvenor, Eva Hesse, Donald Judd, Gary Kuehn, Sol LeWitt, Robert Mangold, John McCracken, Robert Morris, Robert Rauschenberg, Fred Sandback, Richard Serra, Tony Smith, Frank Stella, Robert Smithson, Anne Truitt. About the Series: Each book in TASCHEN's Basic Genre Series features a detailed, illustrated introduction plus a timeline of the most important political, cultural, and social events that took place during that period, a selection of the most important works of the epoch, each of which is presented on a 2-page spread with a full-page image and with an interpretation of the respective work, plus a portrait and brief biography of the artist, approximately 100 colour illustrations with explanatory captions.

String Sculpture John Winter, 1972 Trauma Informed Teaching through Play Art Narrative (PAN) Karen O. Wallace, Patrick J. Lewis, 2020-06-02 Trauma affects the lives of many children who we teach in school. It affects the students, teachers who teach them, the administration, and the school community as it is part of the school environment and culture. Teachers and administrators have great potential to set up an environment and adopt an attitude that can help heal the trauma in the lives of their students. Schools need to become trauma-informed to be able to provide for the growing number of refugee children who have experienced terrorism, crime, war, and abuse, to better help some Indigenous children who, due to systemic racism and discriminatory policies, have been traumatised and live daily with trauma, and the growing number of all children who have experienced various kinds of trauma during their life span Trauma informed schools means that all students can feel safe enough to learn succeed academically and thrive after having undergone a traumatic event Trauma Informed Teaching demonstrates how Play Art Narrative PAN can be instrumental in creating trauma informed schools The authors provide play art and narrative techniques and activities that educators can use to safely work therapeutically with traumatised children and youth
