

THE LOST CHILD

SUMMARY

It was the festival of spring. Hundreds of people, men, women and children, set out to visit the fair. They were colourfully dressed. Some rode on horses, others sat in bullock carts, the rest walked all the way. A little boy was also going with his parents. He was very excited. He was often left behind because the toys in the shops attracted him. His parents had to call him again and again.
