Substantial Knowledge C. D. C. Reeve, 2002-11-01 In this groundbreaking work C D C Reeve uses a fundamental problem the Primacy Dilemma to explore Aristotle's metaphysics epistemology dialectic philosophy of mind and theology in a new way At a time when Aristotle is most often studied piecemeal Reeve attempts to see him both in detail and as a whole so that it is from detailed analysis of hundreds of particular passages drawn from dozens of Aristotelian treatises and translated in full that his overall picture of Aristotle emerges Primarily a book for philosophers and advanced students with an interest in the fundamental problems with which Aristotle is grappling Substantial Knowledge's clear non technical and engaging style will appeal to any reader eager to explore Aristotle's difficult but extraordinarily rewarding thought

Evagrius Ponticus Julia Konstantinovskiy, 2016-04-22 A revered instructor of the eremitic monks of Nitria Sketis and Kellia Evagrius Ponticus is a fascinating yet enigmatic figure in the history of fourth century mystical thought This historical and theological re evaluation of the teaching of Evagrius brings to bear evidence from the Greek and Syriac Evagriana Focusing on Evagrius concept of perfection as the acquisition of spiritual knowledge this book revisits current perceptions of Evagrius's thought and character by comparing and contrasting him with his contemporaries and predecessors both Christian and pagan Ideas of the three Cappadocians and the author of the Macarianas as well as Stoic Neo Platonic and earlier Christian writers such as Alcinoos Plotinus Clement and Origen are all explored Konstantinovskiy draws attention to a lack of uniformity in the fourth century views on the origin of the soul the body soul relation and the eschatological destiny of humankind

Towards a Knowledge Based Economy? Michael Kuhn, Massimo Tomassini, P. R. J. Simons, 2006 Although educational research advocates the perspective of the learner who or what is it advocating against The governments of all European Union countries give learning the most prominent place on their policy agendas the European Commission wants Europe to become a knowledge based society companies across the European Union are no longer interested primarily in profit but want to be learning organisations social scientists detect the emergence of a learning society and economists advocate a learning economy What does European educational research do if nowadays everybody in the European Union wants nothing else but knowledgeable people

Meaning and Metaphysical Necessity Tristan Grøtvedt Haze, 2022-06-16 This book is about the idea that some true statements would have been true no matter how the world had turned out while others could have been false It develops and defends a version of the idea that we tell the difference between these two types of truths in part by reflecting on the meanings of words It has often been thought that modal issues issues about possibility and necessity are related to issues about meaning In this book the author defends the view that the analysis of meaning is not just a preliminary to answering modal questions in philosophy it is not merely that before we can find out whether something is possible we need to get clear on what we are talking about Rather clarity about meaning often brings with it answers to modal questions In service of this view the author analyzes the notion of necessity and develops ideas about linguistic meaning applying them to several puzzles and problems in philosophy of language Meaning and Metaphysical Necessity will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in metaphysics philosophy of language and philosophical logic *The sources of theological knowledge.
