Tuning-In Ronald D. Gordon, PhD, 2018-02-27 Last night I finished reading all the rest of this lovely book After each short chapter rich with wisdom and love I just kept being moved by Ron Gordons life path as poet philosopher educator and person centered practitioner May this book soon be in many peoples hands and homes and in classrooms and therapists offices Had Carl Rogers known Ron I imagine he would rest well knowing what Ron has done with his work and beyond Gay Swenson Barfield PhD Gay Swenson Barfield along with Dr Carl Rogers was founding codirector of the Carl Rogers Institute for Peace at the Center for Studies of the Person La Jolla California She is currently in private practice as a licensed marriage and family yherapist This book is absolutely great Im thoroughly enjoying and benefiting from this brilliant book in countless ways Bravo This book will deepen and enrich your life Noelle Rodriguez PhD Noelle Rodriguez is coauthor of Systematic Self Observation SAGE Publications and is a professor of sociology at the HCC campus of the University of Hawaii Tuning in Ronald Wayne Rodman, 2010 Television has been called the boob tube goof box and even a vast wasteland of American culture Yet for all its banality television is in many ways a mirror of culture and communicates messages within culture through the multiple channels of visual images language sound and music All of these channels contain their own unique coded messages to create the larger meaningful text of television As one of these sensory channels music contributes to meaning in television through its artistic language and through television viewers association of music with certain aspects of culture Music has always been an integral part of the American television even from its earliest days Like its parent medium of radio television broadcasts music to entertain viewers with live and video taped performances but music has also come to play a much larger role in television beyond its pleasurable performance aspects Music is used in narrative programs to evoke moods and identify characters and setting it is used to sell products through commercial jingles and most importantly music generally aids broadcast television in navigating through the continuous flow of daily programming This navigational aspect of television music is a distinctive feature and functions to transport the viewer through three spaces of TV the flow of the televisual apparatus with commercials newbreaks and promos the storyworld of each narrative program and the representational space between narrative and flow As Heard on TV is an examination and analysis of music in American television during the first fifty years of its history The book focuses on how music has functioned to serve as a navigator through the flow of television and contributing to structure narrative programs while also conveying meaning to its viewers by correlating with the images and sounds that it accompanies Drawing from precedents of the cinema and radio the book examines music in a number of classic television genres by positing a theory of functional musical spaces adapted from theories of Charles Morris Umberto Eco John Fiske and others The piano: instructions relating to tuning, regulating and toning Daniel Spillane, 1893 Pianos: Their Construction, Tuning, and Repair Paul Nooncree Hasluck, 1908

Developing Practice Competencies D. Mark Ragg, 2011-01-25 Designed for the generalist practice course this book

uses students own experiences rather than abstract discussion to build competency and professional identity Full of rich case examples and exercises the book lets students visualize and carry out skills in an applied experimental way It breaks down each practice skill into subcomponents allowing students to consciously build up their capabilities as part of a lifelong learning process Social work students will benefit from this presentation of the core knowledge techniques and values essential to the effective practice of social work
