Staging China LI Ruru, 2016-01-26 An insightful analysis of more than a dozen Chinese stage productions Staging China illustrates how Chinese society is reflected by and even constructed through theatre Scholars from around the globe explore wide ranging topics including recent approaches to classical theatre propaganda theatre and the challenges of independent theatres

Polish Theatre after the Fall of Communism Olga Śmiechowicz, 2018-10-09 In international theatre studies there has been a dearth of studies on Polish contemporary theatre This book investigates how Polish theatre has changed since 1989 and the fall of Communism It introduces the most prominent Polish theatre directors namely Krystian Lupa and his two extremely talented students Krzysztof Warlikowski and Jan Klata All three of them represent three absolutely different types of aesthetics and ways of thinking about theatre Krystian Lupa mostly concentrates on Austrian and Russian literature Krzysztof Warlikowski's theatre is based on stage versions of William Shakespeare or Ancient authors Jan Klata focuses his attention on Polish history and current social problems This book highlights the creativity of Polish contemporary theatre and shows how different from most theatre traditions in other European countries it is

The Sound of Music FAQ Barry Monush, 2015-02-01 The Sound of Music FAQ is a comprehensive encyclopedia like reference to the world's most popular movie musical Rather than focusing on the often told stories of this classic movie this book looks at the 1965 Oscar winner in relation to its source including the true von Trapp family story and the Broadway musical from which it was derived The Sound of Music FAQ explores such facts and trivia as the movie's phenomenal original run in cinemas during which it dominated the box office for a staggering amount of time and became the highest grossing movie of the 1960s and of all time its long and varied life on home video and primetime television the bestselling soundtrack and many other related recordings information behind the stunning Austrian locations the critical feedback the many stage revivals and the continuing references homages reunions and tributes related to it over the many decades since its release

The Griffith Project Eileen Bowser, 2006 No other silent film director has been so extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than 500 films has been the subject of a systematic analysis and the vast majority of his other works still awaits proper examination For the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 will be explored in this multi volume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field
