Women In Chaps 2004:

Women in Power in Post-communist Parliaments Marilyn Rueschemeyer, Sharon L. Wolchik, 2009 This book examines the life and work of women who have reached positions of political power after the end of communism in Europe It explores the roles they have adopted the relationships they have cultivated and the agendas they have pursued This volume treats the issues comparatively in six countries the Czech Republic Germany with a focus on the former GDR Slovenia Bulgaria Poland and Russia It also includes interviews with and written statements by the very women in power discussed in the first half of the book giving voice to their common and divergent experiences as political actors within an environment of stormy economies and new foreign engagements particularly with the European Union

"Women, Patronage, and Salvation in Renaissance Florence" Stefanie Solum, 2017-07-05 Long obfuscated by modern definitions of historical evidence and art patronage Lucrezia Tornabuoni de Medici's impact on the visual world of her time comes to light in this book the first full length scholarly argument for a lay woman's contributions to the visual arts of fifteenth century Florence This focused investigation of the Medici family's domestic altarpiece Filippo Lippi's Adoration of the Christ Child is broad in its ramifications Mapping out the cultural network of gender piety and power in which Lippi's painting was originally embedded author Stefanie Solum challenges the received wisdom that women played little part in actively shaping visual culture during the Florentine Quattrocento She uses visual evidence never before brought to bear on the topic to reveal that Lucrezia Tornabuoni shrewd power broker pious poetess and mother of the Magnificent Lorenzo de Medici also had a profound impact on the visual arts Lucrezia emerges as a fascinating key to understanding the ways in which female lay religiosity created the visual world of Renaissance Florence The Medici case study establishes at long last a robust historical basis for the assertion of women's agency and patronage in the deeply patriarchal and artistically dynamic society of Quattrocento Florence As such it offers a new paradigm for the understanding and future study of female patronage during this period

Local Welfare Policy Making in European Cities Dagmar Kutsar, Marjo Kuronen, 2015-04-24 This book focuses on how EU welfare policies are implemented at the local level in 11 European cities and how local policy making addresses women's care responsibilities The book studies the complex combination of and the relationships between local political processes policies institutions structural conditions and outputs as well as outcomes for the women's labour market integration It demonstrates how cultural settings and multi level governance patterns form the playground for local policy makers to formulate their welfare policies concerning service provision The book further demonstrates how local production systems and the situation of the local labour market influence the prospects that women have in working and caring EU welfare policy promotes the labour market integration of women as well as gender equality The provision of adequate care services is vital in supporting women's employment Within comparative welfare research the focus has been on the national welfare systems and policies even if care services are overwhelmingly provided by local authorities that in many EU member states enjoy considerable autonomy This book fills the gap in understanding local welfare policy making from a comparative perspective
