Georgia Women Ann Short Chirhart, Betty Wood, 2009 This first of two volumes extends from the founding of the colony of Georgia in 1733 up to the Progressive era From the beginning Georgia women were instrumental in shaping the state yet most histories minimize their contributions The essays in this volume include women of many ethnicities and classes who played an important role in Georgia's history Though sources for understanding the lives of women in Georgia during the colonial period are scarce the early essays profile Mary Musgrove an important player in the relations between the Creek nation and the British Crown and the loyalist Elizabeth Johnston who left Georgia for Nova Scotia in 1806 Another essay examines the near mythical quality of the American Revolution era accounts of Georgia's War Woman Nancy Hart The later essays are multifaceted in their examination of the way different women experienced Georgia's antebellum social and political life the tumult of the Civil War and the lingering consequences of both the conflict itself and Emancipation After the war both necessity and opportunity changed women's lives as educated white women like Eliza Andrews established or taught in schools and as African American women like Lucy Craft Laney who later founded the Haines Institute attended school for the first time Georgia Women also profiles reform minded women like Mary Latimer McLendon Rebecca Latimer Felton Mildred Rutherford Nellie Peters Black and Martha Berry who worked tirelessly for causes ranging from temperance to suffrage to education The stories of the women portrayed in this volume provide valuable glimpses into the lives and experiences of all Georgia women during the first century and a half of the state's existence Historical figures include Mary Musgrove Nancy Hart Elizabeth Lichtenstein Johnston Ellen Craft Fanny Kemble Frances Butler Leigh Susie King Taylor Eliza Frances Andrews Amanda America Dickson Mary Ann Harris Gay Rebecca Latimer Felton Mary Latimer McLendon Mildred Lewis Rutherford Nellie Peters Black Lucy Craft Laney Martha Berry Corra Harris Juliette Gordon Low

Slavery in Colonial Georgia, 1730-1775 Betty Wood, 2007-12-01 Georgia was the only British colony in America in which a sustained effort was made to prohibit the introduction and use of black slaves at a time when the institution of slavery was well established in the other southern colonies In the first half of Slavery in Colonial Georgia Betty Wood examines the reasons which prompted James Oglethorpe and the other British founders of the colony to originally ban slavery In their concern for the manners and morals of white society she says they anticipated many of the arguments to be employed subsequently by the opponents of slavery on both sides of the Atlantic The second half of the book examines the development of slavery in Georgia during the quarter century before the Revolution with special attention on the experience of black slaves in late colonial Georgia

Georgia Slave Narratives Federal Writers Project, 1938-01-01 From 1936 to 1938 the Works Projects Administration WPA commissioned writers to collect the life histories of former slaves This work was compiled under the Franklin Roosevelt administration during the New Deal and economic relief and recovery program Each entry represents an oral history of a former slave or a descendant of a former slave and his or her personal account of life during slavery and emancipation These interviews were published as type written records that were difficult to read This new edition has been enlarged and enhanced for greater legibility No library collection in Georgia would be complete without a copy of Georgia Slave Narratives Country Life in Georgia in the Days of My Youth Rebecca Latimer Felton,1919 The Black Abolitionist Papers C. Peter Ripley,Jeffery S. Rossbach,2000-11-09 This five volume documentary collection culled from an international archival search that turned up over 14 000 letters speeches pamphlets essays and newspaper editorials reveals how black abolitionists represented the core of the antislavery movement While the first two volumes consider black abolitionists in the British Isles and Canada the home of some 60 000 black Americans on the eve of the Civil War the remaining volumes examine the activities and opinions of black abolitionists in the United States from 1830 until the end of the Civil War In particular these volumes focus on their reactions to African colonization and the idea of gradual emancipation the Fugitive Slave Law and the promise brought by emancipation during the war The Short Life of Free Georgia Noeleen McIlvenna,2015-08-31 For twenty years in the eighteenth century Georgia the last British colony in what became the United States enjoyed a brief period of free labor where workers were not enslaved and were paid The Trustees for the Establishment of the Colony of Georgia created a Georgia experiment of philanthropic enterprise and moral reform for poor white workers though rebellious settlers were more interested in shaking off the British social system of deference to the upper class Only a few elites in the colony actually desired the slave system but those men backed by expansionist South Carolina planters used the laborers demands for high wages as examples of societal unrest Through a campaign of disinformation in London they argued for slavery eventually convincing the Trustees to abandon their experiment In The Short Life of Free Georgia Noeleen McIlvenna chronicles the years between 1732 and 1752 and challenges the conventional view that Georgia s colonial purpose was based on unworkable assumptions and utopian ideals Rather Georgia largely succeeded in its goals until self interested parties convinced England that Georgia had failed leading to the colony s transformation into a replica of slaveholding South Carolina
