Star Factory:

Inside the Star Factory Chris Gunn, Christopher Wanjek, 2023-10-17 A fascinating ground level backstage pass to the creation launch and reach of the James Webb Space Telescope NASA's James Webb Space Telescope the world's largest orbiting astronomy observatory is now nearly a million miles from Earth probing the first stars and galaxies documenting the structure and evolution of the universe and searching for signs of life in other solar systems In a series of extraordinary photographs Inside the Star Factory tells the story of the Webb Telescope from conception to launch a marvel of ingenuity and engineering that entailed more than 100 million people hours over a span of thirty years The project's lead photographer Chris Gunn was there from the start documenting the Webb's tumultuous history the behind the scenes details of its construction from the cutting edge technology required for an observatory operating at temperatures as low as 370 F beyond reach for repair to the human story of an engineering team pursuing an unprecedented goal under incomparable pressure Derided as the telescope that ate astronomy billions of dollars over budget ten years over schedule nearly canceled twice Webb was simply too big to fail Accompanied by science writer Christopher Wanjek's overview of the Webb's history and profiles of the scientists and engineers who built it this exclusive illustrated guide shows readers the heady world of scientific discovery at the very limits of human knowledge and the very beginning of space and time Irish Urban Fictions Maria Beville, Deirdre Flynn, 2018-11-01 This collection is the first to examine how the city is written in modern Irish fiction Focusing on the multi faceted layered and ever changing topography of the city in Irish writing it brings together studies of Irish and Northern Irish fictions which contribute to a more complete picture of modern Irish literature and Irish urban cultural identities It offers a critical introduction to the Irish city as it represented in fiction as a plural space to mirror the plurality of contemporary Irish identities north and south of the border The chapters combine to provide a platform for new research in the field of Irish urban literary studies including analyses of the fiction of authors including James Joyce Roddy Doyle Kate O'Brien Hugo Hamilton Kevin Barry and Rosemary Jenkinson An exciting and diverse range of fictions is introduced and examined with the aim of generating a cohesive perspective on Irish urban fictions and to stimulate further discussion in this emerging area Bulletin, 1914 Yearbook, 1927 Coastal Works Nicholas Allen, Nick Groom, Jos Smith, 2017-07-04 In all the complex cultural history of the islands of Britain and Ireland the idea of the coast as a significant representative space is critical For many important artists coastal space has figured as a site from which to braid ideas of empire nation region and archipelago They have been drawn to the coast as a zone of geographical uncertainty in which the self definitions of the nation founder they have been drawn to it as a peripheral space of vestigial wildness of island retreats and experimental living as a network of diverse localities richly endowed with distinctive forms of cultural heritage and as a dynamically interconnected ecosystem which is at the same time the historic site of significant developments in fieldwork and natural science This collection situates these cultures of the Atlantic edge in a series of essays that create new contexts for coastal study in literary history and criticism The contributors frame their research in response to emerging conversations in archipelagic criticism the blue humanities and island studies the essays challenging the reader to reconsider ideas of margin periphery and exchange These twelve case studies establish the coast as a crucial location in the imaginative history of Britain Ireland and the north Atlantic edge Coastal Works will appeal to readers of literature and history with an interest in the sea the environment and the archipelago from the 18th century to the present Accessible innovative and provocative Coastal Works establishes the important role that the coast plays in our cultural imaginary and suggests a range of methodologies to represent relationships between land sea and cultural work
