Sitaram Bendrey,1985 Indian Epigraphy D.C. Sircar,2017-01-01 The most significant of India s contributions of the civilization of the world was made in the ancient period Unfortunately the history of this glorious epoch which is an interesting chapter in the annals of human civilization was lost and we have been reconstructing it on the basis of information gathered from various sources Of these epigraphy is the most important since the major part of what we already know about ancient India is derived from the study of inscriptions In the present work Professor D C Sircar deals with various problems relating to Indian pigraphy and it is expected to be useful to people interested in ancient Indian history in general and Indian inscriptions in particular Some of the topics discussed herein are inscriptions and their evidence languages in which the inscriptions are written writing materials the preparation and preservation of documents copperplate grants stanzas on bhumi dana Indian epigraphy abroad systems of dating and the different eras technical expressions including royal titles and official designations taxes land measures nomenclature etc There are thirty six plates illustrating various types of epigraphical records Epigraphy and Islamic Culture Mohammad Yusuf Siddiq,2015-11-19 Architectural inscriptions are a fascinating aspect of Islamic cultural heritage because of their rich and diverse historical contents and artistic merits These inscriptions help us understand the advent of Islam and its gradual diffusion in Bengal which eventually resulted in a Muslim majority region making the Bengali Muslims the second largest linguistic group in the Islamic world

This book is an interpretive study of the Arabic and Persian epigraphic texts of Bengal in the wider context of a rich epigraphic tradition in the Islamic world While focusing on previously untapped sources it takes a fresh look into the Islamic inscriptions of Bengal and examines the inner dynamics of the social intellectual and religious transformations of this eastern region of South Asia It explores many new inscriptions including Persian epigraphs that appeared immediately after the Muslim conquest of Bengal indicating an early introduction of Persian language in the region through a cultural interaction with Khurasan and Central Asia In addition to deciphering and editing the epigraphic texts the information derived from them has been analyzed to construct the political administrative social religious and cultural scenario of the period The first survey of the Muslim inscriptions in India ever to be attempted on this scale the book reveals the significance of epigraphy as a source for Islamic history and culture As such it will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian Studies Asian History and Islamic Studies

Monumental Islamic Calligraphy from India Wayne Edison Begley,1985 Muslim Inscriptions in the Punjab, Haryana, and Himachal Pradesh Subhash Parihar,1985 During Muslim ascendancy from 1206 to 1858 a large variety of structures such as Mosques tombs sarais baolis tanks palaces and mansions were constructed in Punjab Haryana and Himachal Pradesh These monuments bear inscription in Arabic and Persian which provide rich epigraphic evidence on events and personage otherwise unknown Subhas Parihar the authro who has been enthusiastically busy exploring the unexplored historical monuments has not only presented in this book these inscriptions in a systemetic form but aslo included a number of inscriptions which have not been deciphered or translated earlier Primarily this is a propria persona study of these monuments and he had done the photo graphing of surviving inscriptions himself The study is fully illustrated by 40 halftone plates
