The Unknown Mountain:

The Unknown Mountain Don Munday, 1948      A Passion for Mountains Kathryn Bridge, 2006 Don and Phyllis Munday are western Canada's most famous mountaineering couple. Active members of the Alpine Club of Canada, they climbed for almost four decades throughout the Pacific Northwest as well as in the Selkirk and the Rocky Mountains. The Mundays were ahead of their time. They are chiefly renowned for their tenacity and environmental awareness as well as for their scientific contributions in exploring and documenting the little-known Coast Mountains. Their joint climbs from the 1920s through the 1940s included scaling 150 plus mountains, more than 40 were first ascents. A Passion for Mountains features a broad selection of the Mundays' photographs and incorporates their own words to describe many of their ascents.      To the Unknown Mountain. Ascent of an Unexplored Twenty-five Thousander in the Karakoram. [With Plates]. Cuthbert Wilfrid Francis NOYCE, 1962      Managing the Unknown Christoph H. Loch, Arnoud DeMeyer, Michael Pich, 2011-11-30

Managing the Unknown offers a new way of looking at the problem of managing projects in novel and unknown environments. From Europe's leading business school, this book shows how to manage two fundamental approaches that in combination offer the possibility of coping with unforeseen influences that inevitably arise in novel projects: Trial and Error Learning allows for redefining the plan and the project as the project unfolds; Selectionism pursues multiple independent trials in order to pick the best one at the end. Managing the Unknown offers expert guidelines to the specific project mindsets, infrastructures, and management methods required to use these project management approaches and achieve success in spite of unforeseen obstacles. This book equips readers with causal explanations of why unforeseeable factors in novel projects make traditional project planning and project risk management insufficient. Directly applicable management tools that help managers to guide novel and high uncertainty projects. Real world case studies of both successful and unsuccessful approaches to managing high uncertainty in novel projects.      Pedaling into the Unknown Sally Fenner, 2023-03-03

Grief was gnawing at me, trapping my body in a cycle of pain with no offer of relief, making me restless and not letting me go. I desired liberation to care less about things I desperately sought; inner and outer liberation. I was having sleepless nights. My soul knew the solution, but my body was not listening until the moment came when I just longed to leave. I wished to free myself from this situation, wipe it from my being, and surround myself with the wilderness. The wilderness was my church where I went to heal my hurt. It understood me. Bathed in nature, I rid my mind of unpleasant thoughts and eased myself of the injustices that had incapacitated me, depriving me of peace. The only energy I had left in me, I used to leave, just go and be free. The wilderness enabled me to breathe once more, to really breathe, and when you own your own breath, no one can steal your peace. And so the adventure began: mountain biking from Canada to Mexico, off-road climbing a total elevation higher than Mt. Everest, and escaping predators for my honeymoon.      On the Trail of the Unknown in the Wilds of Ecuador and the Amazon George Miller Dyott, 1926      The Unknown of the Known in Africa James Qeqe, 2018-03-01
