Stop Making Sense:

There's No Going Back David M. Stewart, 2025-07-29 Jonathan Demme one of the most influential and dynamic directors of the twentieth century was a fearless and radical filmmaker screenwriter and producer a compassionate artist advocate and humanist who was compelled to tell the stories of marginalized communities His intense passion and appreciation of music culture and art were interwoven throughout his life and extraordinary body of work There s No Going Back is the first complete biography of an auteur whose remarkable and versatile career encompassed acclaimed narratives documentaries and films spanning nearly five decades Best known for Melvin and Howard 1980 The Silence of the Lambs 1991 Philadelphia 1993 and Beloved 1998 Demme was an Oscar winning filmmaker with a recognizable style and voice He often used that voice to champion women s rights and amplify social and environmental justice issues Demme was also well regarded for the loyalty devotion and collegiality shown to the actors camera crew and technical staff he employed in his projects Cinephile and journalist David M Stewart affirms that Demme was more than just a quirky filmmaker or a product of 1970s New Hollywood he was ceaseless and earnest in his approach to capturing humanity in all its complexities Drawing from interviews with Demme s collaborators and colleagues Stewart presents the many facets of the filmmaker s life as seen through the eyes of those who were in his warm eclectic orbit There s No Going Back is a compelling and fitting tribute to the brilliance and breadth of the man behind the camera

Stop Making Sense Scott Wilson, 2015 Stop Making Sense offers an original and compelling theory of music from the perspective of the real as this term is understood according to the Lacanian orientation in psychoanalysis Specific examples and cases discussed include Freud s melophobia or fear of music Che Guevara s revolutionary a rhythmia John F Nash s obsession with Bach s Little Fugue Talking Heads and Asperger s syndrome autism Yoko Ono and the sense of lack in the Beatles the role of Imagine in the murder of John Lennon Brian Eno and the digital auto generation of Freud s oceanic feeling Aphex Twin and the brain dance of the hikikomori and the utopian promise of Merzbow The first part of the book explains its theoretical and methodological underpinnings that are based in a reading of subjects and symptoms such as amusia The second and third parts focus on contemporary examples that look at how music has become both a powerful locus of discontent and also a form of orientation in an age of generalized psychosis imposed by neoliberalism as a form of governance

Albums I have written the stories behind the albums and the recording artists along with commentary on particular songs and other works by the same recording artists My goal is to flesh out information on the greatest music ever recorded particularly for younger people who didn't grow up with these records While not comprehensive the sections in the book give a good overview of the rock music scene over the past half century or so along with musicians in other genres that appeal to me

The New Hollywood Jim Hillier, 1992 The studio system which had dominated Hollywood for more than half a century finally fell apart in the late 1960s The uncertainty that followed opened the way for independent producers many of whom were already specializing in exploitation movies with titles like Slumber Party Massacre which were targeted at the 12 to 20 year old age group These films with their starvation budgets and impossible shooting schedules gave a start to a number of notable directors Others were meanwhile trying their luck in television or shooting experimental movies The first post studio directors the so called movie brats Spielberg Lucas Coppola Scorsese and De Palma are now famous Behind them has come a new generation of directors often controversial who now make some of Hollywood s most interesting pictures This book based on in depth interviews looks at the experiences of some thirty of them in getting established and keeping afloat in the new Hollywood Drawing upon information gathered in interviews more often than quoting directly from them Jim Hillier has produced an absorbing account from the filmmakers viewpoint of the business of filmmaking Some of the new generation of directors have already had hits such as Terminator James Cameron The Silence of the Lambs Jonathan Demme Gremlins Joe Dante Sleeping with the Enemy Joseph Ruben and Look Who s Talking Amy Heckerling Others continue to make inexpensive horror movies Yet others divide their time between cinema and television among them Michael Mann who directed Manhunter for the cinema and produced Miami Vice and Crime Story for television and David Lynch of Blue Velvet Wild at Heart and Twin Peaks Among those included are Bill Duke A Rage in Harlem Mike Figgis Internal Affairs Randa Haines Children of a Lesser God Tim Hunter River s Edge Spike Lee Do the Right Thing Jim McBride The Big Easy and Susan Seidelman Desperately Seeking Susan Today the name Hollywood conjures up not simply tinseltown itself but the whole of the American film industry The New Hollywood bears witness to the diversity and vigor still remaining in an industry that over the past twenty years has become more dispersed less rigidly organized and much more costly Jim Hillier s book provides the essential background to understanding the economic and creative forces that will carry the American cinema into the 21st century
