

Intro to Sociology

The Presentation of Self

- According to sociologists, when we come into contact with others:
 - We form impressions of others and manage impressions of ourselves at the same time (i.e., impression formation)
 - Physical appearance → attractive vs. unattractive
 - Clothing, grooming, height, and weight (e.g., overweight being stereotyped as lacking willpower)
 - Those who are considered unattractive can be perceived as untrustable, un-intelligent, etc.
 - Those who are seen as attractive can be seen as responsible, trustworthy, intelligent, etc.
 - This is the major one, it is so obvious and simple, but so complex in terms of its meaning.
 - Verbal cues (e.g., accent, word choice, etc.) and non-verbal cues (e.g., posture, gestures, facial expressions, etc.)
 - Social group membership → (e.g., people's gender, race, sex, age, and ethnicity.)
- The Presentation of Self in Everyday Life by Erving Goffman (1959)
 - Impression management → Performances by which people attempt to present a favorable public image of themselves to their audience
 - How we carry ourselves, and how we present ourselves politically.
 - What we learn is how to look, what to say, when to say it.
 - We know what we have to do to manage our impression in the eyes of others to appear favorable
 - The primary goal is to increase the likelihood of obtaining favorable outcomes.
 - Job interviews
 - Meeting a significant other's family
 - Any kind of formal event where there is a specific dress code (ex: weddings, parties)

- Dramaturgy is the study of social life as theatre
 - Front stage → performance takes place in front of an audience – you have your script (what to say) and props (physical objects or other people used.)
