The Commodore:

The Commodore's Daughters Jonas Lie, 1895 The Commodore's Story Ralph Middleton Munroe, Vincent Gilpin, 2018-12-05 The changes which brought the city of Miami of today are delightfully described in this book of personal reminiscences written by one of Florida's earliest settlers in collaboration with his life long friend Vincent Gilpin Ralph Munroe first went to Biscayne Bay in 1887 Soon after that time he and his friends built his home The Barnacle in Coconut Grove where he has lived ever since From this center his influence has been felt for almost fifty years during the vivid and exciting period of early exploration and settlement during the slow development which led up to Flagler and the railroad through the boom the disastrous hurricanes against which the Commodore's warnings went unheeded down to the present time No one interested in southern Florida or in the sea can afford to miss this picturesque story of a Biscayne Bay pioneer who is today so widely and affectionately known One of Florida's earliest lovers the Commodore has been unswervingly devoted to the best interests of the region and has been close to the most significant incidents of its growth Beautifully illustrated throughout with photographs from Ralph Munroe's private collection the earliest on the Bay The Commodore

Patrick O'Brian, 2011-12-05 The seventeenth novel in the sweeping Aubrey Maturin series of naval tales which the New York Times Book Review has described as the best historical novels ever written Having survived a long and desperate adventure in the Great South Sea Captain Jack Aubrey and Stephen Maturin return to England to very different circumstances For Jack it is a happy homecoming at least initially but for Stephen it is disastrous his little daughter appears to be autistic incapable of speech or contact while his wife Diana unable to bear this situation has disappeared her house being looked after by the widowed Clarissa Oakes Much of The Commodore takes place on land in sitting rooms and in drafty castles but the roar of the great guns is never far from our hearing Aubrey and Maturin are sent on a bizarre decoy mission to the fever ridden lagoons of the Gulf of Guinea to suppress the slave trade But their ultimate destination is Ireland where the French are mounting an invasion that will test Aubrey's seamanship and Maturin's resourcefulness as a secret intelligence agent The subtle interweaving of these disparate themes is an achievement of pure storytelling by one of our greatest living novelists to tolerate the things that I did against them as individuals during the last 10 years thinking that I would eventually run out of steam Never in a million years did they realize that a book chronicling the entire conflict was being written while the conflict was happening The characters in this book are very much real and are from the former District Attorney to the judges and police in truth nothing but useful idiots in this titanic struggle between good and evil What is hanging in the balance is the Thomas Monroe Trusts continued presents in the region manifested as Demington Medical Center And Demington Medical Center will only continue to exist if the Inyo valley community allows it to The Commodore ,1985
