The Pro Patria Project

Patrick Vollmar

The Pro Patria Project:

The Pro Patria Project Nathan S. Mitchell, 2000-05-15 The Pro Patria Project for one's country is the sequel to the author's The ProCon Conspiracy. It involves a dozen powerful men, six each from the federal and private sectors, who hatch a plot to assassinate a dozen of the nation's most prominent citizens. Believing these men are undermining the country's morals and values, the Committee of Twelve consists of the National Security Advisor, Joint Chiefs of Staff Chairman, Secretary of Defense, Directors of the CIA and FBI, and a U.S. Congressman. Pardoned men from the defunct ProCon Conspiracy are recruited by the Committee to plan and execute the plot. General Henry Mullaire and Colonel Manfred West, co-conspirators during the ProCon debacle, manage an intriguing scheme that uses desperate men to carry out the ruthless murders. No witnesses remain at the end; no stone is left unturned. The third book in the trilogy, The Bane of Cinco de Mayo, will follow later this year.

Guillermo Calles Rogelio Agrasánchez, Jr., 2014-01-10 In 1912 Guillermo Calles (1893-1958) became the first Mexican actor to appear in films made in California. Despite limited resources, he began directing and producing his own movies, and in 1929 pioneered production of Spanish language sound films. His major works among them, the long unavailable El indio yaqui and Raza de bronce (both 1927) represented Calles' tireless crusade to restore the image of Mexicans and Indians in an era dominated by Hollywood stereotypes. This biography traces Calles' career from his earliest Hollywood days through the 1950s. Included are the only surviving images of the filmmaker's silent productions, a closing commentary on his intimate circle of relatives, and an appendix featuring two fascinating letters written by Calles during a filming trip. Lions of the North

Benjamin R. Teitelbaum, 2017-01-02 Lions of the North explores the ways anti-immigrant, anti-liberal activists in the Nordic countries are transforming their identities through music, focusing on the role of new music in their attempts to escape association with skinhead hooliganism and forge alternative reputations as refined activists.

Javanese Literature in Surakarta Manuscripts Nancy K. Florida, 2018-08-06 This book completes a series of three volumes cataloguing the Javanese language manuscripts housed in four repositories in the Central Javanese city of Surakarta that were preserved in microfilm under the auspices of the Cornell University's Surakarta Manuscript Project. The present volume describes the manuscripts of the Radya Pustaka Museum and the private library of the late Panembahan Hardjonagoro, a body of materials that date from the early eighteenth to the early twentieth century. Detailing the contents of the 1,204 texts inscribed in these 478 manuscripts, Nancy K. Florida's fully indexed catalogue guides the reader through a wide range of materials. The manuscripts catalogued include autobiographical writings, gamelan notation works, works of calendrical divination, annotated translations of the Qur'an, compendia of colonial laws and regulations, Sufi poetry, royal genealogies, handbooks on horsemanship, histories of legendary heroes, and scripts for wayang performances. Each entry includes information on titles, authors, dates, and places of composition; dates and places of inscription; identities of scribes and patrons; and concise descriptions of the contents. Each title is also provided with a subject categorization along with notes on the physical size and condition of the original.
