Cogan, 2001-09-30 It was logical to expect that the European Economic and Monetary Union would lead ineluctably to an autonomous European defense the very size of the European Union seems to demand it The EU eventually will reach the point where its economic and demographic weight will far exceed that of the United States Can it not be expected too that the EU will seek to make this weight felt internationally Cogan tracks the halting creation of an independent European military structure a third way between national armies and NATO since the Iron Curtain's fall With the Cold War's end and subsequent western engagements in Central and Eastern Europe it is no longer a question of whether NATO and the EU compare they now must relate They have to coordinate their planning and force postures so as to avoid duplication of resources and efforts Although NATO's integrated command structure theoretically was an anomaly with the end of the Cold War it nevertheless turned out to be the case in Bosnia and later Kosovo that nothing was possible until the Americans intervened The virtue of integrated command American participation and know how was once again seen as crucially important despite the increasingly anachronistic deficit of sovereignty for Western Europe in defense matters In the long run Europe's economic power must be balanced by its military and diplomatic might The Third Option for the South China Sea David Jay Green, 2016-09-16 This Palgrave Pivot uses a simple model from game theory to explain the behavior of countries disputing ownership of resources and of small islands in the South China Sea It argues that the rapid transformation of the region's economy the rise of Factory Asia is not being acknowledged leading countries to take chances beyond what a rational picture of costs and benefits would suggest Regional economic cooperation may be a viable alternative to the present conflicts However the varied experience of regional initiatives in Southeast Asia provides a cautionary note that while there is the potential for peaceful development of the South China Sea there are significant challenges to structuring successful programs The Third Option Vince Flynn, 2010-12-28 When diplomacy has failed and military intervention is deemed inappropriate our leaders sometimes take THE THIRD OPTION CIA counterterrorism operative Mitch Rapp falls prey to government forces with an agenda of their own after Dr Irene Kennedy is named the successor to dying CIA Director Thomas Stansfield a choice that enrages many inside the world's most powerful intelligence agency Her detractors will resort to extreme measures to prevent her from taking the reins which makes Rapp an expendable asset But Mitch Rapp is no one's pawn and he will stop at nothing to find out who has set him up The Ontario weekly notes ,1914 The Third Option Steve Horne, 2019-08-29 The Northwestern Reporter ,1914 Supreme Court ,
