Zinfandel Charles L. Sullivan,2003-09-02 The Zinfandel grape currently producing big rich luscious styles of red wine has a large loyal even fanatical following in California and around the world The grape grown predominantly in California has acquired an almost mythic status in part because of the caliber of its wines and its remarkable versatility and in part because of the mystery surrounding its origins Charles Sullivan a leading expert on the history of California wine has at last written the definitive history of Zinfandel Here he brings together his deep knowledge of wine with the results of his extensive research on the grape in the United States and Europe in a book that will entertain and enlighten wine aficionados and casual enthusiasts In this lively book Sullivan dispels the false legend that has obscured Zinfandel s history for almost a century reveals the latest scientific findings about the grape s European roots shares his thoughts on the quality of the wines now being produced and looks to the future of this remarkable grape Sullivan reconstructs Zinfandel s journey through history taking us from Austria to the East Coast of the U S in the 1820s to Gold Rush California and through the early days of the state s wine industry He considers the ups and downs of the grape s popularity including its most recent and according to Sullivan most brilliant up He also unravels the two great mysteries surrounding Zinfandel the myth of Agoston Haraszthy s role in importing Zinfandel and the heated controversy over the relationship between California Zinfandel and Italian Primitivo Sullivan ends with his assessments of the 2001 and 2002 vintages firmly setting the history of Zinfandel into the chronicles of grape history

Vintage Feasting Joy Sterling,1997-10 A seasonal joyous journal of one year of drinking eating and celebrating from an internationally renowned vintner In settings suffused with the scents of Giverny like gardens Joy shows how to create an extraordinary range of atmospheres with menus and wines and shares secrets of tasting and cooking with wine A treasure trove of fascinating lore succulent menus and memorable wines New Cook Book Better Homes and Gardens, Tricia Laning, 2005 Presents the seventy fifth anniversary edition of the famous cookbook and contains a collection of full color photographs and detailed instructions to a number of recipes A Cook's Table Jan Jorgensen, Todd Wernstrom, 2024-11-08 This cookbook will not be like most other cookbooks And when we write this we are not claiming that we have reinvented the genre one that has not really changed all that much other than in presentation over the centuries Our book is not organized by the seasons It is not pegged to certain proteins the cuisine of a specific country or cooking techniques be they primal or avant garde Instead we have organized this book around a handful of the most commercially important and recognizable grapes The recipes in each chapter are conceived so as to complement one of that grape's resultant styles of a finished wine This is not the first cookbook to double down on the importance of a dish and a wine complementing each other However we think it goes further on the subject without getting bogged down by theory formulas and rules and the invariable exceptions to them in a very commonsense and straightforward way We have all come a long way from white with fish and red with meat Jan has often said that he'll figure out what to cook and how to cook it based upon what he is in the mood to drink and vice versa That very unfussy sort of weeknight ethos is present throughout these pages The recipes aren't designed to elicit oohs and aahs or impress by employing the newest technology or technique the words sous vide air fryer and even tweezers will not show up in them Instead there are dozens of recipes some simple some less so that hew to traditions that in some cases date back hundreds of years or borne of necessity or by chance Many others are grounded in Jan's background in professional kitchens including his own in Miami Two Chefs Wine East, 2008
