The background of the cover is a lush, green forest scene. Sunlight filters through the trees, creating a warm, golden glow. Numerous small, glowing particles, resembling fireflies or magical sparks, are scattered throughout the air, adding a sense of wonder and magic. A faint rainbow is visible in the upper right portion of the sky. The overall atmosphere is ethereal and enchanting.

The Unmaking:

The Making and the Unmaking of the Preacher William Jewett Tucker, 1898 SPAR; The Unmaking- Book 2 Iliana Lauriston, 2026-03-18 SPAR The Unmaking They came for Moira's gifts They marked the wrong bloodline Mr Fortier has a perfect record of making the gifted disappear When he knocks on her door he expects compliance He doesn't understand what he's stepped into Because in some Clans the hunted don't run They turn And they hunt back For readers who know some doors should never be knocked on The Unmaking of Malaysia Ahmad Mustapha Hassan, 2007 Addresses and Sermons to Students David McConnell Steele, 1919 Arthur J. Goldberg David Stebenne, 1996 This is a solid well detailed account of the political career of Arthur J Goldberg A prominent and defining figure in the American labor movement Goldberg served as Secretary of Labor under the Kennedy Administration before being named a justice to the Supreme Court He was also ambassador to the United Nations during Johnson's presidency Goldberg was considered one of the most important liberals in American public life in the 1960s and was a major force for reform both on and off the judicial bench This book places Goldberg's career and its significance in relation to the social and political events of the time The Social Movements Reader Jeff Goodwin, James M. Jasper, 2009-04-20 Combining the strengths of both a reader and a textbook this second edition of The Social Movements Reader not only expands on the collection of classic texts but also provides the most important and readable articles and book selections on social movements from recent decades Requiring no prior knowledge about social movements this new edition includes definitions of key concepts biographies of exemplary leaders new developments in the field and timelines of several ongoing social movements Analysing the specific resources networks structures and environments of social movements as well as the motivating psychology ideas political debates emotions and personal and collective identities behind them this is an engaging and illuminating collection for anyone curious about social movements Lyndon Johnson, Vietnam, and the Presidency David Zarefsky, 2021-08-16 Even those who remember hearing those words may not remember that they came at the very end of a 45 minute speech primarily concerning Vietnam Three months into an already tumultuous year in the aftermath of the Tet offensive and facing a deeply divided country President Lyndon Baines Johnson addressed the nation to announce new initiatives and appeal for public support The speech of March 31 1968 announced a bombing halt over much of North Vietnam a limited troop increase rather than a major escalation and his own decision to withdraw from the presidential race Each of these decisions was unexpected a major surprise that stunned the nation In Lyndon Johnson Vietnam and the Presidency political rhetoric scholar David Zarefsky examines the three key announcements and how they fit together in the speech In particular LBJ's announcement that he would not run for re election gave the de escalation measures more credibility because they could not be seen as political ploys Zarefsky traces the development of the speech through eleven drafts reflecting disagreements and doubts among the writers and advisers In turn he sets these efforts in the larger context of the Cold War and the impact of the Tet offensive Drawing on archival sources and reflecting rhetorical insights this book illuminates one of the most consequential speeches of the 1960s Even though the fighting in Vietnam would continue for several more years the course of America s conduct in Vietnam was changed permanently by this speech The Mourner's Song James Tatum,2004-05 No matter when or where they are fought all wars have one thing in common a relentless progression to monuments and memorials for the dead Likewise all art made from war begins and ends in mourning and remembrance In The Mourner s Song James Tatum offers incisive discussions of physical and literary memorials constructed in the wake of war from the Vietnam Veterans Memorial to the writings of Stephen Crane Edmund Wilson Tim O Brien and Robert Lowell Tatum s touchstone throughout is the Iliad not just one of the earliest war poems but also one of the most powerful examples of the way poetry can be a tribute to and consolation for what is lost in war Reading the Iliad alongside later works inspired by war Tatum reveals how the forms and processes of art convert mourning to memorial He examines the role of remembrance and the distance from war it requires the significance of landscape in memorialization the artifacts of war that fire the imagination the intimate relationship between war and love and its effects on the ferocity with which soldiers wage battle and finally the idea of memorialization itself Because all survivors suffer the losses of war Tatum s is a story of both victims and victors commanders and soldiers women and men Photographs of war memorials in Vietnam France and the United States beautifully augment his testimonials Eloquent and deeply moving The Mourner s Song will speak to anyone interested in the literature of war and the relevance of the classics to our most pressing contemporary needs Animals and Hunters in the Late Middle Ages Hannele Klemetilä,2015-03-02 This book explores views of the natural world in the late Middle Ages especially as expressed in Livre de chasse Book of the Hunt the most influential hunting book of the era It shows that killing and maiming suffering and the death of animals were not insignificant topics to late medieval men but constituted a complex set of issues and could provoke very contradictory thoughts and feelings that varied according social and cultural milieus and particular cases and circumstances The Evolution of Prussia J.A.R.. Marriott,C. Grant Robertson,1915 Transactions of the Royal Canadian Institute ,1915 The Collected Works of Ambrose Bierce ...: Antepenultima Ambrose Bierce,1912
