Tricks Twentyfive Encounters:

Tricks Renaud Camus,1996 This is a collection of 25 tales of sexual encounters celebrating a type of sexual energy and freedom that has been lost to gay men since the AIDS epidemic began

Promiscuity in Western Literature Peter Stoneley,2020-02-13 Poet and novelist Charles Bukowski described promiscuity as feast and feast and feast The promiscuous person is having fun getting away with it and showing no signs of stopping More often though promiscuity has been seen as demonic as the sign of an uncivilised race or as a symptom of mental disorder Promiscuity in Western Literature capitalises on the fact that literature gives us deep and varied resources for reflecting on this controversial aspect of human behaviour Drawing on authors from Homer to Margaret Atwood it explores recurrent ideas and scenarios Why does the literature of promiscuity evoke ideas of the animal Why does it so often turn upon the image of the excessive woman How and why does promiscuity feature in comic writing How does the emergence of the modern city change representations of promiscuity And in the present day what impact have ecological concerns had on the way writers depict promiscuity

Writing the Modern City Sarah Edwards,Jonathan Charley,2012-03-12 Literary texts and buildings have always represented space narrated cultural and political values and functioned as sites of personal and collective identity In the twentieth century new forms of narrative have represented cultural modernity political idealism and architectural innovation Writing the Modern City explores the diverse and fascinating relationships between literature architecture and modernity and considers how they have shaped the world today This collection of thirteen original essays examines the ways in which literature and architecture have shaped a range of recognisably modern identities It focuses on the cultural connections between prose narratives the novel short stories autobiography crime and science fiction and a range of urban environments from the city apartment and river to the colonial house and the utopian city It explores how the themes of memory nation and identity have been represented in both literary and architectural works in the aftermath of early twentieth century conflict how the cultural movements of modernism and postmodernism have affected notions of canonicity and genre in the creation of books and buildings and how and why literary and architectural narratives are influenced by each other s formal properties and styles The book breaks new ground in its exclusive focus on modern narrative and urban space The essays examine texts and spaces that have both unsettled traditional definitions of literature and architecture and reflected and shaped modern identities sexual domestic professional and national It is essential reading for students and researchers of literature cultural studies cultural geography art history and architectural history
