The Chymical Wedding:

Chymical Wedding Lindsay Clarke, 2011-04-20 Soon after moving to the secluded Norfolk village of Munding Alex Darken has a disturbing encounter with the ageing poet Edward Nesbit and his young lover Laura They are obsessively researching the lives of Sir Henry Agnew and his daughter Louisa who lived in Munding in the nineteenth century and were deeply engaged in alchemical practices By recovering the lost secret of the hermetic mysteries Edward and Laura hope to find an alternative to the destructive materialism of the post industrial world Once drawn into their fervent quest for knowledge Alex finds himself entangled in a passionate and intense intrigue that reaches across two centuries A beautifully written ambitious and captivating novel which takes a profound look at issues of nature human existence and forgotten knowledge The Chymical Wedding which won the 1989 Whitbread Prize for Best Novel is already considered a classic for its stylistic prowess and philosophical resonances

The Chemical Wedding of Christian Rosenkreutz Joscelyn Godwin, 1991-10-01 The Chemical Wedding of Christian Rosenkreutz often looked upon as the third Rosicrucian manifesto has an entirely different tone from the other Rosicrucian documents Unlike the Rosicrucian manifestoes which address the transformation of society The Chemical Wedding is concerned with the inner transformation of the soul It is a deeply interior work one which asks the reader to step into its world of symbols and walk with Christian Rosenkreutz along his path of transformation Despite its importance as a key text of the Western esoteric traditions this is the first ever contemporary English translation of The Chemical Wedding made especially for this edition by Joscelyn Godwin Also included in this edition is an introduction and commentary by Adam McLean which illuminates the transformative symbolism somebody in an unusual manner touched me on the back whereupon I was so hugely terrified that I dared hardly look about me yet I showed myself as cheerful as in such occurrences human frailty would permit Now the same thing still twitching me several times by the coat I looked back and behold it was a fair and glorious lady whose garments were all sky coloured and curiously like Heaven bespangled with golden stars in her right hand she bore a trumpet of beaten gold on which a Name was engraved which I could well read but am as yet forbidden to reveal it
