The Music Lesson:

The Music Lesson Victor L. Wooten, 2008-04-01 From Grammy winning musical icon and legendary bassist Victor L. Wooten comes an inspiring parable of music life and the difference between playing all the right notes and feeling them The Music Lesson is the story of a struggling young musician who wanted music to be his life and who wanted his life to be great Then from nowhere it seemed a teacher arrived Part musical genius part philosopher part eccentric wise man the teacher would guide the young musician on a spiritual journey and teach him that the gifts we get from music mirror those from life and every movement phrase and chord has its own meaning All you have to do is find the song inside The best book on music and its connection to the mystic laws of life that I've ever read I learned so much on every level Multiple Grammy Award winning saxophonist Michael Brecker

Vermeer's Camera Philip Steadman, 2002 Over 100 years of speculation and controversy surround claims that the great seventeenth century Dutch artist Johannes Vermeer used the camera obscura to create some of the most famous images in Western art This intellectual detective story starts by exploring Vermeer's possible knowledge of seventeenth century optical science and outlines the history of this early version of the photographic camera which projected an accurate image for artists to trace However it is Steadman's meticulous reconstruction of the artist's studio complete with a camera obscura which provides exciting new evidence to support the view that Vermeer did indeed use the camera These findings do not challenge Vermeer's genius but show how like many artists he experimented with new technology to develop his style and choice of subject matter The combination of detailed research and a wide range of contemporary illustrations offers a fascinating glimpse into a time of great scientific and cultural innovation and achievement in Europe

The Music Lesson Katharine Weber, 2011-01-04 She's beautiful writes Irish American art historian Patricia Dolan in the first of the journal entries that form The Music Lesson I look at my face in the mirror and it seems far away less real than hers The woman she describes is the subject of the stolen Vermeer of the novel's title Patricia is alone with this exquisite painting in a remote Irish cottage by the sea How she arrived in such an unlikely circumstance is one part of the story Patricia tells us about her father a policeman who raised her to believe deeply in the cause of a united Ireland the art history career that has sustained her since the numbing loss of her daughter and the arrival of Mickey O Driscoll her dangerously charming young Irish cousin which has led to her involvement in this high stakes crime How her sublime vigil becomes a tale of loss regret and transformation is the rest of her story The silent woman in the priceless painting becomes for Patricia a tabula rasa a presence that at different moments seems to judge to approve or to offer wisdom As Patricia immerses herself in the turbulent passions of her Irish heritage and ponders her aesthetic fidelity to the serene and understated pleasures of Dutch art she discovers in her silent communion a growing awareness of all that has been hidden beneath the surface of her own life And she discovers that she possesses the knowledge of what she must do to preserve the things she values most
