To Be A Graduate:

So You Want to Be a Doctor? David Metcalfe,Harveer Dev,Michael Moazami,2021 Applying to medical school is like asking someone to marry you This might seem like an exaggeration however over your life you will spend more hours working than you will spend awake with your life partner Like marriage being a doctor will change who you are influence where you live and affect what you can do with your life For the right person this can be a wonderful life affirming experience Otherwise divorce from a medical career can be messy painful and upsetting How to Be a Dean George Justice,2019-03-12 The essential guide to the hardest job in higher ed A deanship in higher education is an exciting but complex job combining technical administration and academic leadership On one hand the dean is an institutional leader standing up for the faculty staff and students On the other the dean is a middle manager managing personnel curriculum and budgets and trying to live up to the expectations of the governing board president and provost But what is it really like to be a dean In How to Be a Dean George Justice illuminates both of these leadership roles which interact and even conflict with each other while deans do their best to help faculty members and students Providing tested advice Justice takes readers from the job search through the daily work of the dean and ultimately to the larger questions of leadership excellence and integrity the role provokes He also explores the roles of different deanships in the broader context of academic leadership Based on the author s experience as a dean at two large research universities How to Be a Dean is clear engaging and opinionated Current deans will use this book to reflect on the work they do in productive ways Faculty members considering administrative work will find in this book some idea about the day to day work required of their institutional leaders And finally readers who are simply curious about what deans do will find pointed analysis about what works and what doesn t

So You Want to Be a Doctor? Kerry J Breen,2012-01-01 So You Want to Be a Doctor is written specifically for young people who are considering embarking on a medical degree as well as for those already enrolled This essential guide covers Prerequisites for admission into medical school at both undergraduate and graduate entry level What to expect as a qualified doctor in Australia today and what the Australian community expects in its doctors Life as a student from the application selection and interview process to the pressures of study advice on managing stress and distress and where to get help if needed The 18 medical schools in Australia their similarities and differences and particular focus or strengths The Australian health care system and career paths for medical graduates It includes advice about study methods financial support and balancing study with part time work and a social life as well as information that is relevant to specific groups such as Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students international students and students with a disability So You Want to Be a Doctor provides all the information a prospective medical student might need to decide on pursuing a career in medicine and to survive and thrive during the course of their study The Latinx Guide to Graduate School Genevieve Negrón-Gonzales,Magdalena L. Barrera,2023-01-30 In The Latinx Guide to Graduate School Genevieve Negr n Gonzales and

Magdalena L Barrera provide prospective and current Latinx graduate students in the humanities and social sciences fields with a roadmap for surviving and thriving in advanced degree programs They document the unwritten rules of graduate education that impact Latinx students demystifying and clarifying the essential requirements for navigating graduate school that Latinx students may not know because they are often the first in their families to walk that path Topics range from identifying the purpose of graduate research finding the right program and putting together a strong application to developing a graduate student identity cultivating professional and personal relationships and mapping out a post graduate school career The book also includes resources for undocumented students Equal parts how to guide personal reflection manifesto and academic musing this book gives a culturally resonant perspective that speaks to the unique Latinx graduate student experience
