Venus in Furs Leopold Ritter von Sacher-Masoch,2004 Leopold von Sacher Masoch was born in Lemberg Austrian Galicia on January 27 1836 He studied jurisprudence at Prague and Graz and in 1857 became a teacher at the latter university He published several historical works but soon gave up his academic career to devote himself wholly to literature For a number of years he edited the international review Auf der Hohe at Leipzig but later removed to Paris for he was always strongly Francophile His last years he spent at Lindheim in Hesse Germany where he died on March 9 1895 In 1873 he married Aurora von Rumelin who wrote a number of novels under the pseudonym of Wanda von Dunajew which it is interesting to note is the name of the heroine of Venus in Furs Her sensational memoirs which have been the cause of considerable controversy were published in 1906 During his career as writer an endless number of works poured from Sacher Masoch s pen Many of these were works of ephemeral journalism and some of them unfortunately pure sensationalism for economic necessity forced him to turn his pen to unworthy ends There is however a residue among his works which has a distinct literary and even greater psychological value His principal literary ambition was never completely fulfilled It was a somewhat programmatic plan to give a picture of contemporary life in all its various aspects and interrelations under the general title of the Heritage of Cain This idea was probably derived from Balzac s Comedie Humaine The whole was to be divided into six subdivisions with the general titles Love Property Money The State War and Death Each of these divisions in its turn consisted of six novels of which the last was intended to summarize the author s conclusions and to present his solution for the problems set in the others This extensive plan remained unachieved and only the first two parts Love_ and _Property were completed Of the other sections only fragments remain The present novel Venus in Furs forms the fifth in the series Love The best of Sacher Masoch s work is characterized by a swift narration and a graphic representation of character and scene and a rich humor The latter has made many of his shorter stories dealing with his native Galicia little masterpieces of local color

Venus in Furs (German: Venus im Pelz) is the most famous work of the Austrian author Leopold von Sacher Masoch and a part of Love in the first volume of the series of Das Vermächtnis Kains or Legacy of Cain, sometimes translated as Heritage of Cain, which was published in 1870. The plan of the author was to group various novellas into 6 volumes, each of which was titled according to its central theme: viz. Love, Property, State, War, Work, and Death. The first volume, Love, was completed in 1870 and it begins with the prologue short story The Wanderer in which a hunter off in the dense forest meets a strannik, wandering ascetic whose passionate speech reveals his philosophy where Cain is responsible for having unleashed into the world the six evils that title each volume of the cycle. The only other volume, Property, was published in 1877. The novel draws themes like female dominance and sadomasochism and character inspiration heavily from the author's own life.

Wanda von Dunajew, the novel's central female character, was modeled after Fanny Pistor, who was an emerging literary writer. The two met when Pistor contacted Sacher Masoch under assumed name and fictitious title of Baroness Bogdanoff for suggestions on improving her writing to make it suitable for publication. Von Sacher Masoch was born in the city of Lemberg, now Lviv, Ukraine, the capital of the Kingdom of Galicia and Lodomeria at the time a province of the Austrian Empire, into the Roman Catholic family of an Austrian civil servant, Leopold Johann Nepomuk Ritter von Sacher, and Charlotte von Masoch, a Ukrainian noblewoman. He later combined his surname with his wife's von Masoch at the request of her family; she was the last of the line. Von Sacher served as a Commissioner of the Imperial Police Forces in Lemberg and he was recognised with a new title of nobility as Sacher Masoch, awarded by the Austrian Emperor. Leopold studied law, history, and mathematics at Graz University and after graduating moved back to Lemberg where he became a professor. His early non-fictional publications dealt mostly with Austrian history. At the same time, Masoch turned to the folklore and culture of his homeland, Galicia. Soon he abandoned lecturing and became a free man of letters. Within a decade, his short stories and novels prevailed over his historical non-fiction works, though historical themes continued to imbue his fiction.

On 9 December 1869, Sacher Masoch and his mistress, Baroness Fanny Pistor, signed a contract making him her slave for a period of six months, with the stipulation that the Baroness wear furs as often as possible. The two travelled by train to Italy. As in Venus in Furs, he traveled in the third class compartment while she had a seat in first class, arriving in Venice, Florence in the novel, where they were not known and would not arouse suspicion. Sacher Masoch pressured his first wife, Aurora von Rmelin, whom he married in 1873, to live out the experience of the book against her preferences. Sacher Masoch found his family life to be unexciting and eventually got a divorce and married his assistant. According to official reports, he died in Lindheim, Altenstadt, Hesse, in 1895. It is also claimed that he died in an asylum in Mannheim in 1905. Sacher Masoch is the great-great-uncle to the British singer and actress Marianne Faithfull on the side of her mother the Viennese Baroness Eva Erisso The term masochism was coined in 1886 by the Austrian psychiatrist Richard Freiherr von Krafft Ebing 1840 1902 in his book Psychopathia Sexualis I feel justified in calling this sexual anomaly Masochism because the author Sacher Masoch frequently made this perversion which up to his time was quite unknown to the scientific world as such the substratum of his writings I followed thereby the scientific formation of the term Daltonism from Dalton the discoverer of colour blindness
