Tyler's Pain Janette Ruffin-Rusher, 2010-10-26 Tyler's Pain is the true story of racism how even though we have come a long way in this world it is still a current and relevant problem Janette Rusher's daughter Tyler is now eighteen years old When she was ten she had to endure the taunts of children who insulted her because she was black different from them They had been taught that it was acceptable to treat others who are different in a disparaging manner It is hard to imagine that a child of ten might be considering her own death in order to avoid the daily pain of being targeted just for being a different race Tyler's Pain is the story of a mother's journey guiding her daughter through such events to insure that she survived She wanted her daughter to understand that the world is good and that the actions of a few ignorant people should not change a happy life Above all Rusher wanted her to know how important it is to must stand tall and always fight for what you believe in Tyler's Pain does not favor one race or another The message that resonates through it is that through patience love and faith
