A. Henty,2014-05-18 What am I to do with you Terence It bothers me entirely there is not a soul who will take you and if anyone would do so you would wear out his patience before a week s end there is not a dog in the regiment that does not put his tail between his legs and run for his bare life if he sees you and as for the colonel he told me only the other day that he had so many complaints against you that he was fairly worn out with them That was only his way father the colonel likes a joke as well as any of them Yes when it is not played on himself but you haven t even the sense to respect persons and it is well for you that he could not prove that it was you who fastened the sparrow to the plume of feathers on his shako the other day and no one noticed it till the little baste began to flutter just as he came on to parade and nigh choked us all with trying to hold in our laughter while the colonel was nearly suffocated with passion It was lucky you were able to prove that you had gone off at daylight fishing and that no one had seen you anywhere near his quarters By my faith if he could have proved it was you he would have had you turned out of the barrack gate and word given to the sentries that you were not to be allowed to pass in again I could have got over the wall father the boy said calmly but mind I never said that it was I who fastened the sparrow in his shako Because I never asked you Terence but it does not need the asking What I am to do with you I don t know Your Uncle Tim would not take you if I were to go down upon my knees to him You were always in his bad books and you finished it when you fired off that blunderbuss in his garden as he was passing along in the twilight and yelled out Death to the Protestants The boy burst into a fit of laughter How could I tell that he was going to fall flat upon the ground and shout a million murders when I fired straight into the air Well you did for yourself there Terence Not that the old man would ever have taken to you for he never forgave my marriage with his niece still he might have left you some money some day seeing that there is no one nearer to him and it would have come in mighty useful for you are not likely to get much from me But we are no nearer the point yet      With Moore at Corunna - Scholar's Choice Edition G. A. Henty,2015-07-13 Excerpt from With Moore at Corunna Still in spite of this British genius and valour triumphed over all difficulties and Wellesley delivered Lisbon and compelled the French army to surrender Then again Moore by his marvellous march checked the course of victory of Napoleon and saved Spain for a time Cradock organized an army and Wellesley hurled back Soult s invasion of the north and drove his army a dispirited and worn out mass of fugitives across the frontier and in less than a year from the commencement of the campaign carried the war into Spain So far I have endeavoured to sketch the course of these events in the present volume But the whole course of the Peninsular War was far too long to be condensed in a single book except in the form of history pure and simple therefore I have been obliged to divide it into two volumes and I propose next year to follow up the adventures of my present hero who had the good fortune with Trant Wilson and other British officers to attain the command of a body of native irregulars acting in connection with the movements of the British army About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
