With Spanners Descending Joe Roberts, 1996-01-01 Diary of a Red Devil Albert Blockwell, 2008-10-19 Many books have been written about the Second World War and the majority of them either concentrate on a particular battle campaign or unit Individual accounts are certainly in a minority and those from the lower ranks even more scarcer Helion and Co Ltd are therefore pleased to announce the publication of Diary of A Red Devil It relates the war time experiences of a young man Albert Blockwell from the northeast of England who in February 1940 was called up for service with the Army Initially conscripted into the Royal Army Ordnance Corps and trained as a vehicle mechanic he was then posted in March 1940 to a prewar Territorial unit The 7th Kings Own Scottish Borderers then a home defense unit based near London His diary is a most interesting account of a young vehicle mechanic who also had to learn to be a infantry soldier Albert remained with this unit for all his wartime service later going to the Shetland Islands when the 7th KOSB were part of OSDEF Orkney and Shetlands Defence Force Then in late 1943 much to their surprise the unit was posted to Lincolnshire to become the third infantry unit in the 1st Airlanding Brigade then in the process of returning from Italy with the rest of the 1st Airborne Division Swapping their glengarries for red berets Albert and his comrades had to adapt to their new way of getting to war by glider The diary continues with a down to earth account of the highs and lows of the next few months Then in September 1944 Albert flew to Holland on Operation Market Garden and his account written in PoW camp describes the savage nine days fighting at Arnhem from the slit trench level Taken prisoner on the last day his account then describes the spartan life in PoW camp without pulling any punches Sadly Albert died in 2001 but his diary survived and his daughter Maggie Clifton together with help from two published Arnhem authors have edited a unique account of the fighting at Arnhem from the front line soldier s perspective Key sales points Unique personal account of the formation of Britain s airborne forces and their epic actions during Operation Market Garden The diary is supplemented by extensive annotations from acknowledged Arnhem expert Niall Cherry providing additional information relating to the units and individuals mentioned in Albert s diary Features a large number of rare photographs and documents Market Garden Then and Now Boxed Set Karel Margry, 2002-08-30 Both volumes of Operation Market Garden Then and Now in a presentation slip case Arnhem The Fight to Sustain Frank Steer, 2000-10-21 On the ground the airborne logisticians at the battle of Arnhem fought to the bitter end indistinguishable from their paratroop comrades In the air their deeds and sacrifice were shining examples of duty done under the most desperate circumstances Witness the account of Flight Lieutenant H J King navigator of Dakota KG 374 of 271 squadron RAF Down Ampney These men were not volunteers like aircrew They received no flyingpay yet were without doubt superb in their fulfilment of duty even though KG 374 was burning for the whole period over the dropping zone Arnhem The Fight To Sustain tells the stirring story of the men and the methods employed in sustaining 1st Airborne Division It is the first account of forming corps of today s Royal Logistic Corps in action together Following extensive research the story draws heavily on contemporary documents and eyewitness accounts and is lavishly illustrated Arnhem: Black Tuesday Al Murray, 2024-09-12 Discover the Sunday Times bestseller and incredible true story behind the most catastrophic 24 hours the British military faced in World War II from the bestselling author Utterly brilliant this book really is the last word on the Battle of Arnhem James Holland Superb A military historian of originality and insight to compare with the best Saul David _____ The Battle of Arnhem is one of the best known stories in British military history a daring but doomed attempt to secure a vital bridgehead across the Rhine in order to end the war before Christmas 1944 It is always written about with the benefit of unerring 20/20 hindsight as being destined to fail but the men who fought there men of military legend didn't know that that was to be their fate Now in Arnhem Black Tuesday Al Murray focuses on the events of one day as they happened through the eyes of the British participants without bringing any knowledge of what would happen tomorrow to bear offering a very different perspective on a familiar narrative Some things went right and a great many more went wrong but recounting them in this way allows the reader to understand for the first time how certain decisions were taken in the moment and how opportunities were squandered Al Murray has always been obsessed by this legendary battle and in Arnhem Black Tuesday he showcases all of his knowledge interpretation and enthusiasm to bear to tell the story of one of history's great heroic failures differently for the first time _____ Praise for Arnhem Black Tuesday Original and insightful Telegraph A revelation This is Arnhem unplugged By confining himself to men in and around Arnhem on that Tuesday Murray achieves something special The Times TUGboat, 1990 Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998
