N. Findlay,2014-11-20 Professor Findlay in this book originally published in 1961 set out to justify and to some extent carry out a material value ethic ie A systematic setting forth of the ends of rational action The book is in the tradition of Moore Rashfall Ross Scheler and Hartmann though it avoids altogether dogmatic intuitive methods It argues that an organised framework of ends of action follows from the attitude underlying our moral pronouncements and that this framework while allowing personal elaboration is not a matter for individual decision The relations connecting our fundamental value judgements with one another and the frames of mind behind them are not rigorously deductive but are sufficiently compelling to be called logical Something of a transcendental deduction of a well ordered family for our basic heads of valuation is both possible and necessary The work is further critical of the notion of obligation which has been extended far beyond legal contracts and understandings The book also contains a chapter on religion Values and Intentions John Niemeyer Findlay,1978 Values and intentions John Niemeyer Findlay,1968 Creating Value for All Through IT Birgitta Bergvall-Kåreborn,Peter Axel Nielsen,2014-05-19 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the IFIP WG 8 6 International Working Conference Creating Value for All Through IT on Transfer and Diffusion of IT TDIT 2014 held in Aalborg Denmark in June 2014 The 18 revised full papers presented together with 5 research in progress papers 2 experience reports and a panel were carefully reviewed and selected from 37 submissions The full papers are organized in the following topical sections creating value creating value through software development and creating value through applications Psychedelic Preparation Workbook G. Thought and Emotion D. J. Bearison, H. Zimiles, 2014-01-14 First published in 1985 The purpose of this book reflects the 1983 Piaget Society decision to contribute some ideas to a critical problem in psychology how the structure and function of intelligence and affectivity are developmentally related Although this is a fundamental question in psychology it has largely been ignored at different periods in its history With the maturing of the cognitive sciences in the past quarter of a century there today is a recrudescence of interest in the ways in which affect influences cognition

Cross-Cultural Differences in Electronic Word-of-Mouth Influence on Purchase Intention Nicklas Westphal,2017-03-29 Master s Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade 74% University of Warwick language English abstract International marketers are trying to encourage positive electronic word of mouth eWoM about their products and services The question of whether consumers in different cultures respond differently to eWoM is critical if marketers are to leverage the potentially global power of eWoM The central objective of this study is to critically evaluate whether espoused national cultural values at the individual level influence the effect of eWoM on consumers purchase intention Prior cross cultural eWoM research mostly studied culture at the country level This paper draws on perspectives in cultural psychology and cross cultural research that argue that individuals espouse national cultural values to different degrees Therefore predicting the influence of culture on individuals behaviour necessitates to assess cultural values by personality tests at the individual level of analysis Yet no research can sufficiently answer the question of how individual level culture may influence the effect of eWoM on purchase intention The present research addresses this gap by measuring espoused national cultural values of power distance uncertainty avoidance individualism collectivism and masculinity femininity at the individual level of analysis and investigating their influence on the effect of eWoM on purchase intention An experiment using a repeated measures design was conducted with 100 subjects from 18 countries The results reveal that as expected consumers purchase intentions are significantly higher after reading eWoM than after reading factual information on a company website Further the results show that contrary to expectations this effect is not significantly influenced by the national cultural values an individual espouses This implies that traditional market segmentations based on culture are of limited relevance in the online market place Theoretical and managerial implications are discussed
